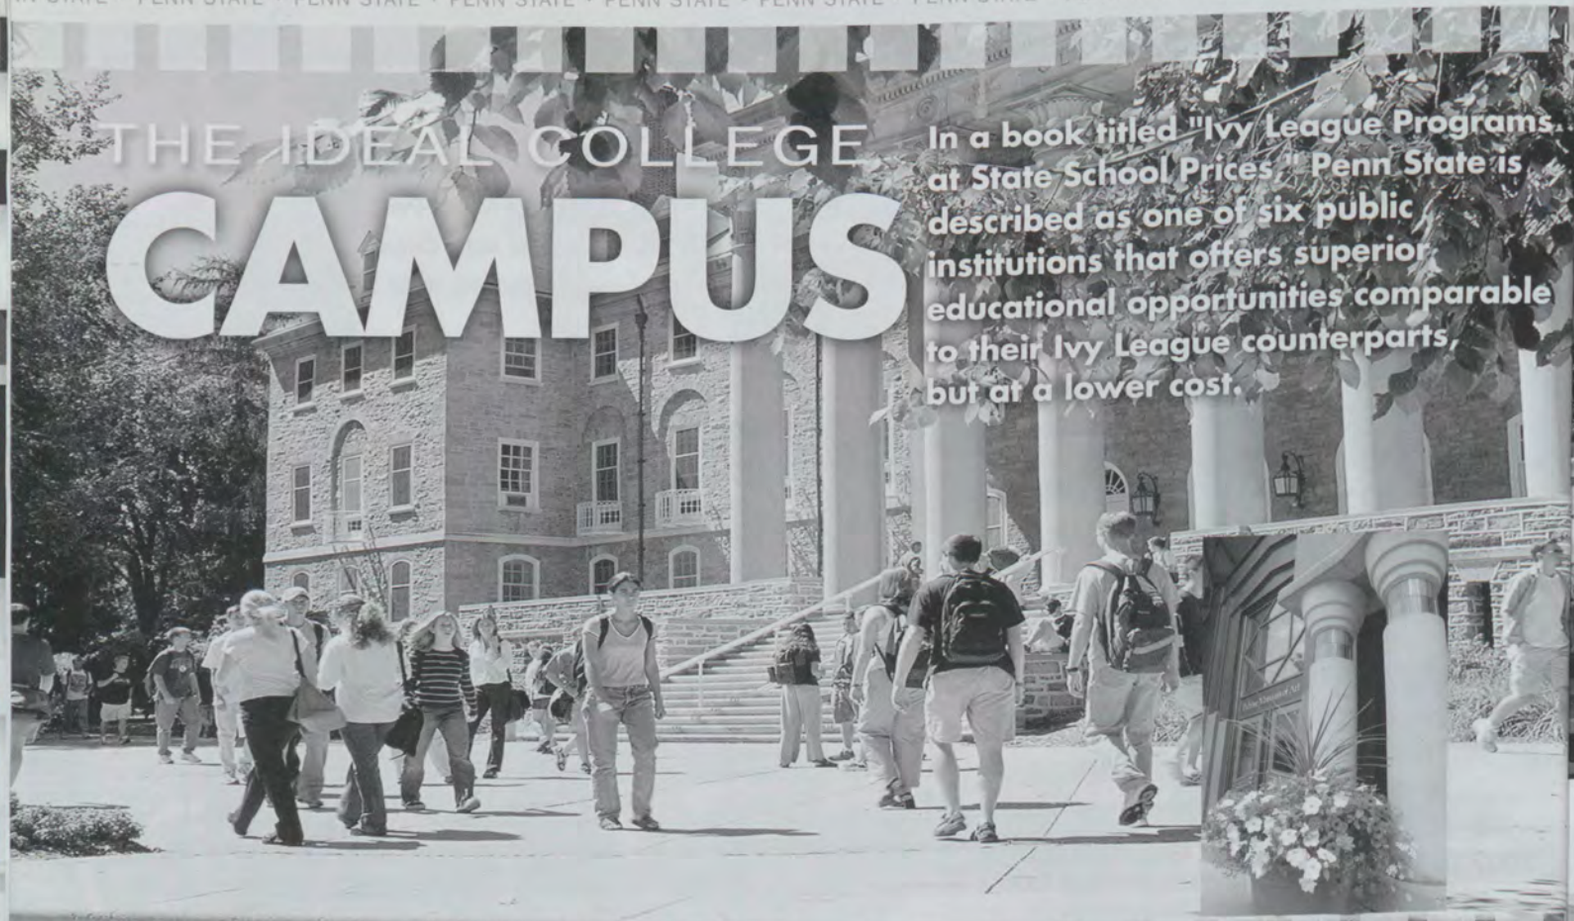
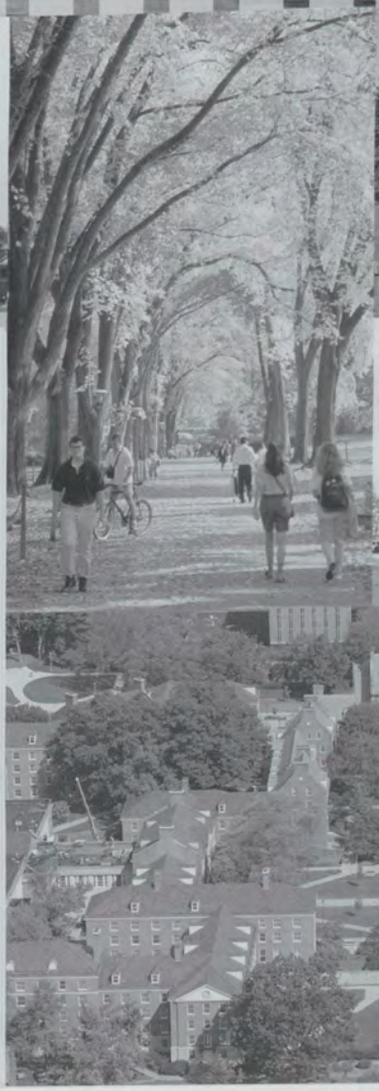
STATEMENT OF NONDISCRIMINATION

The Pennsylvania State University is committed to the policy that all persons shall have equal access to programs, facilities, admission, and employment without regard to personal characteristics not related to ability, performance, or qualifications as determined by University policy or by state or federal authorities. It is the policy of the University to maintain an academic and work environment free of discrimination, including harassment. The Pennsylvania State University prohibits discrimination and harassment against any person because of age, ancestry, color, disability or handicap, national origin, race, religious creed, sex, sexual orientation, or veteran status. Discrimination or harassment against faculty, staff, or students will not be tolerated at The Pennsylvania State University. I all inquiries regarding the nondiscrimination policy to the Affirmative Action Director, The Pennsylvania State University, 328 Boucke Building, University Park, PA 16802-5901; Tel 814-865-4700/V, 814-863-1150/TTY.

THE IDEAL COLLEGE CAMPUS

In a book titled "Ivy League Programs... at State School Prices," Penn State is described as one of six public institutions that offers superior educational opportunities comparable to their Ivy League counterparts, but at a lower cost.





Nestled in the Nittany Valley, the Penn State campus has a charm that easily is identified. The CBS Television show "60 Minutes" once described Penn State as the ideal setting for any Hollywood director doing a film on college life.

Penn State was chartered in 1855 when a faculty of four taught its first students, 11 of whom graduated on 1861. Classes were held in Old Main, which also served as a dormitory. A rebuilt Old Main now is the site of the offices of the University administration, including Dr. Graham Spanier, who became Penn State's 16th president in 1995.

While Old Main once was all that existed of Penn State, today it sits in the middle of 15,984 acres that make up the University Park campus. Five-hundred-and-forty acres, which includes more than 12,000 trees, are devoted to classrooms and office buildings, residence halls and laboratories, with more than 750 buildings comprising the main campus.

From Old Main to Mount Nittany...from Pattee Library to the Creamery...from the new Business and Information Sciences and Technology buildings, the Palmer Museum of Art or the Bryce Jordan Center, Penn State's campus has a picture postcard look.

Penn State is situated in the middle of State College...the classic "college town." Located in the Nittany Valley in the center of Pennsylvania, State College is renowned for its beauty, charm and youthful lifestyle.

Trees and greenery envelope the stately fraternity houses along "Fraternity Row" and the surrounding residential areas. Quaint shops and popular restaurants and taverns share the cozy downtown area with students' favorite fast food shops, contemporary clothing stores and gathering spots.

And it all lies in the shadow of the legendary Mt. Nittany in what is affectionately known as "Happy Valley."

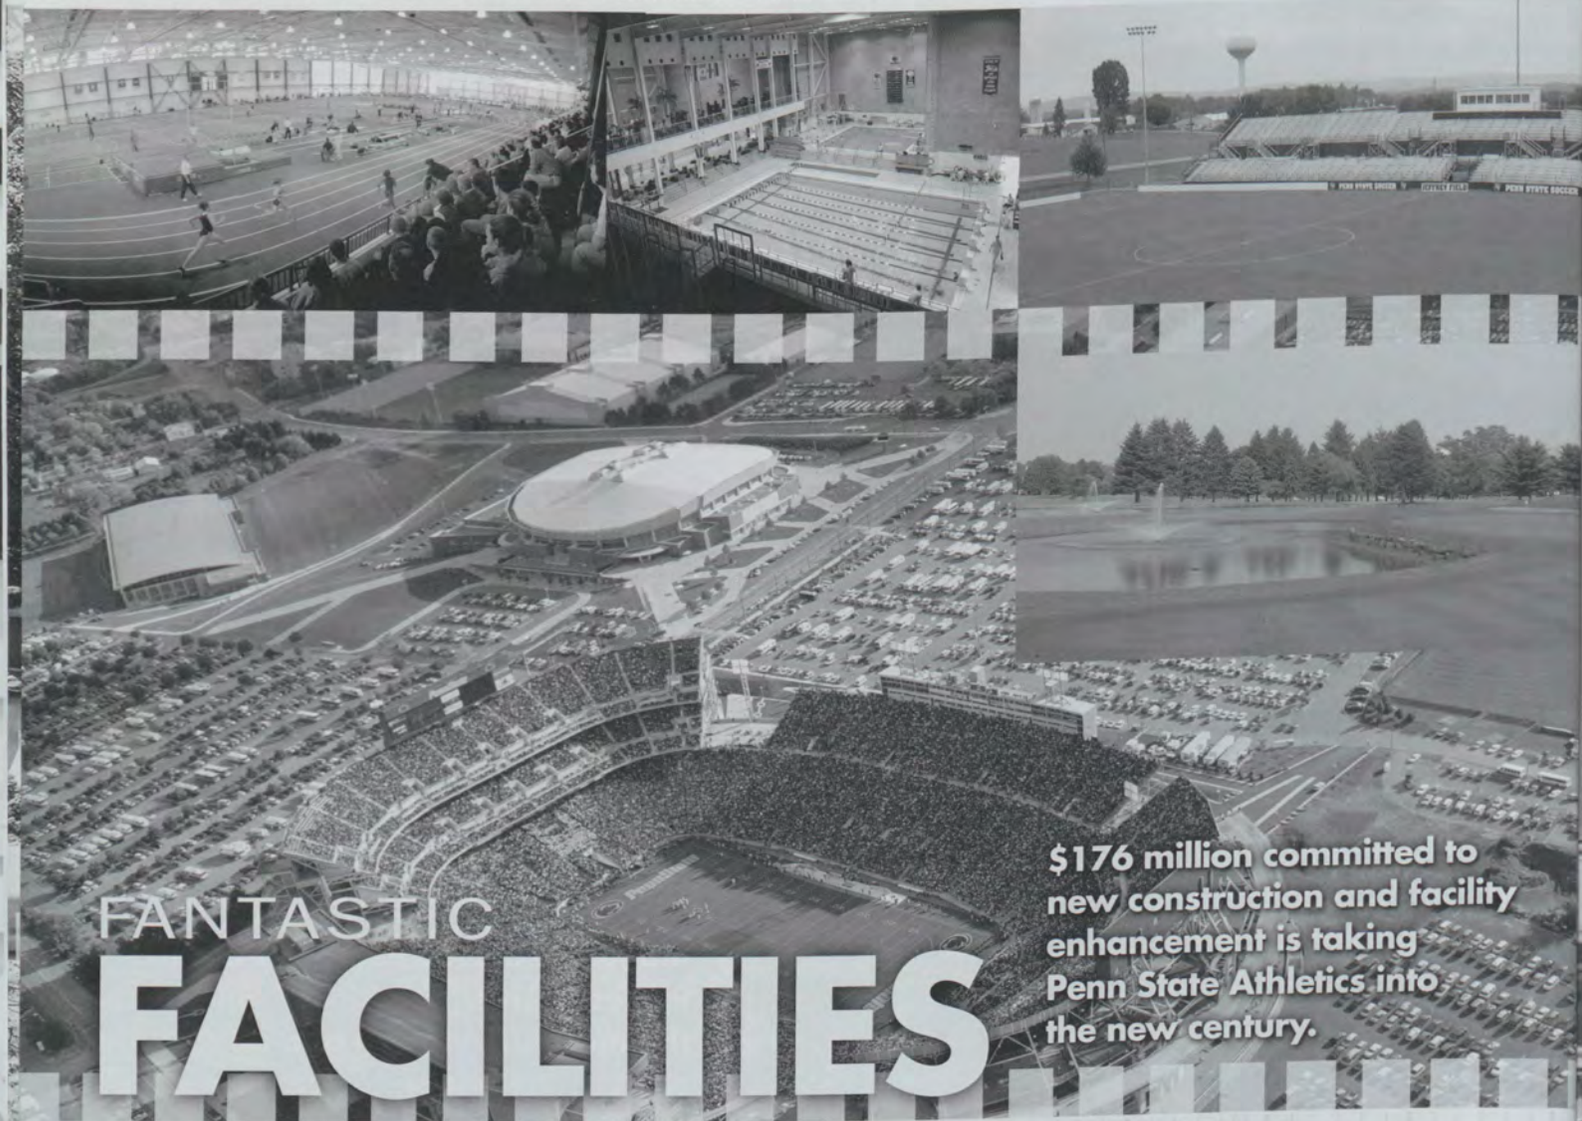
State College is conveniently located in the heart of the nation's mid-Atlantic region. It is but a few hours drive to New York City, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Baltimore and Washington D.C. However, State College provides a great variety of entertainment itself with rock concerts at the Bryce Jordan Center, skiing, fishing, The Central Pennsylvania Festival of the Arts, numerous student organized events and much more.

With a total full-time work force of more than 11,000 faculty, staff, and support personnel, Penn State is Centre County's largest employer. The Centre Region – State College and adjacent townships – has approximately 120,000 inhabitants, including Penn State students.

State College ranked 19th on Kiplinger's Personal Finance Magazine's 2006 list of "50 Smart Places to Live," ranking it among the most fun, vibrant and affordable cities in the nation.

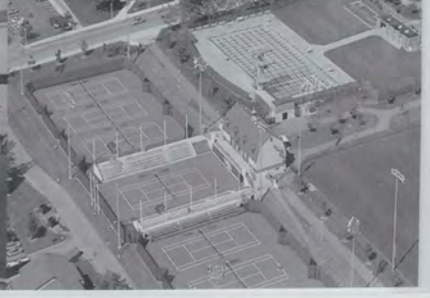
THE ULTIMATE COLLEGE TOWN...

STATE COLLEGE...



FANTASTIC FACILITIES

$176 million committed to new construction and facility enhancement is taking Penn State Athletics into the new century.

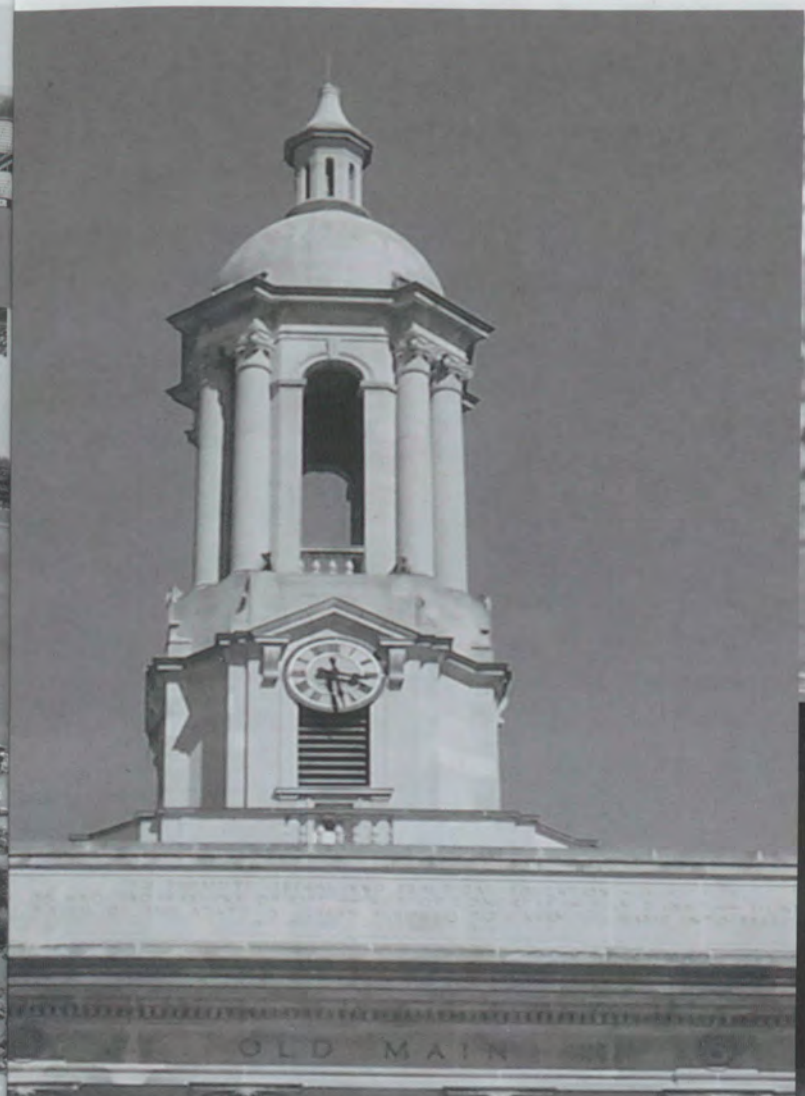


To support its broad-based program, Penn State has athletic facilities the equal of any school in the country.

On the east side of campus lies perhaps the most recognizable of the athletic venues – 107,282-seat Beaver Stadium and the 15,300-seat Bryce Jordan Center, which opened in 1996. The $55 million academic/athletic convocation and events center is the home for the Nittany Lion and Lady Lion basketball teams. Penn State's gymnastics, volleyball and wrestling teams compete in the newly refurbished, 6,846-seat Rec Hall.

Other athletic facilities include newly refurbished Jeffrey Field, the home for soccer and lacrosse, with its stadium seating for 5,000 fans and adjacent state of the art soccer practice fields completed in 2008; Medlar Field at Lubrano Park, a magnificent 5,400-seat baseball facility located adjacent to Beaver Stadium which has served as the home of Penn State baseball since 20006; Nittany Lion Track; the $16 million Indoor Multi-Sport facility which houses a state of the art track among the best in the world and a turf practice field; the $2.1 million Sarni Tennis Center as well as an indoor tennis facility; the Bigler Athletic Complex and the Ernest B. McCoy Natatorium with an adjoining outdoor pool; two 18-hole University golf courses and softball fields.

Penn State tagged $176 million for the construction and renovation of a number of facilities, many of which have recently been completed. Among those still on the docket are a new softball complex and golf team club house slated for completion in the next two years.



NATIONALLY RESPECTED UNIVERSITY

- Nearly 370 Penn State student-athletes earned a grade point average of 3.0 or higher during the 2008 Spring semester representing 55 percent of the the young men and women who comprise Penn State's varsity sports teams. Penn State's 29 varsity teams had an average GPA of 3.02

- Penn State was one of only 10 NCAA Division I-A institutions to be selected for U.S. News & World Report's 2002 College Sports Honor Roll for athletic and academic achievement.

- Penn State's 82 percent four-year graduation rate for student athletes is well above the Division I-A national average of 63 percent for student athletes and second to only Northwestern in the Big Ten.

- Ninety-five percent of Penn State student-athletes in NCAA studies from 1991-2001 who exhausted their eligibility earned their diplomas.

- Penn State tied for first as the nation's best public institution according to a U.S. News & World Report survey of high school students (2004).

- Penn State ranked 14th among public universities for "America's Best Colleges" according to U.S. News & World Report.

- Penn State ranked among the nation's top 16 "Hot Schools," according to the Wall Street Journal.

- Penn State tied for fourth nationally among public institutions and 11th overall in a listing of the best universities in the nation according to a 2003 Gallup poll.

ACADEMIC COUNSELING

Student-athletes are assigned individual counselors who provide them with advice on academics, academic planning, and career choices, as well as keeping them informed about NCAA, Big Ten and Penn State regulations that may affect them.

SPORTS PSYCHOLOGY -

GETTING FOCUSED

A sport psychologist provides counseling and support to student-athletes in the areas of mental preparation strategies for training and competition, motivation and meaningful goal setting, visualization and performance planning, concentration and mental focusing, coping skill strategies for dealing with adversity, and, in general, issues pertaining to self-esteem development and student-athlete welfare.

NAGLE CHAMPS / LIFE SKILLS PROGRAM

1998 NCAA PROGRAM OF EXCELLENCE AWARD WINNER

The Nagle CHAMPS (Challenging Athletes' Minds for Personal Success)/Life Skills Program has been a model program and a consulting resource for the NCAA since its inception in 1989. The Life Skills Program was developed to better prepare student-athletes for the challenges of life beyond the athletic arena.

SPEAKERS BUREAU

The Speaker's Bureau Program provides Penn State student-athletes with the opportunity to develop and utilize public presentation skills while giving back to the community.

PENN PAL PROGRAM -

KEEPING IN TOUCH

The "Penn" Pal Program enables student-athletes to correspond, on a monthly basis, with fourth-, fifth-, and sixth-grade students in local school districts.

MORGAN CENTER MISSION

Central to the mission of Intercollegiate Athletics is the opportunity for student-athletes to experience a well-rounded educational program at The Pennsylvania State University. The mission of the Morgan Academic Support Center for Student-Athletes is to provide appropriate academic support services and University Faculty Senate, NCAA, and Big Ten Conference academic eligibility information to all student-athletes. These services and information should assist student-athletes in achieving their academic goals while participating in a demanding NCAA Division I intercollegiate athletic program. These services should also ensure progress toward graduation through timely completion of degree requirements for baccalaureate and graduate programs.

SHADOW PROGRAM

The goal of the program is give elementary and middle school students the opportunity to tour campus, visit college classes, and interact with student-athletes on a one-to-one basis.

THON

Dance Marathon, often referred to as THON, is the largest student-run philanthropy in the nation, raising more than $34 million for the Four Diamonds Fund and children's cancer research.

SAAB

The Student-Athlete Advisory Board (SAAB) consists of one voting member and one or more alternates from each of Penn State's 29 varsity athletic teams. SAAB meets monthly to discuss any new developments within the NCAA, Big Ten Conference, and the University that affect the student-athletes at Penn State.

MORGAN CENTER PROGRAMS AND FUNCTIONS:

CAREER DEVELOPMENT:

PREPARING FOR THE FUTURE

This Program offers a variety of services to aid student-athletes in making decisions regarding their choice of major, resumé and cover letter writing, career planning, and gaining professional employment.

STUDY ENHANCEMENT:

PREPARING FOR CLASS

Study enhancement sessions are mandatory for all first-year student-athletes and are available to upperclassmen as well.

TUTORING PROGRAM:

A HELPING HAND

The Morgan Academic Support Center offers free tutoring assistance to all student-athletes.

MENTOR PROGRAM

The MASCSA Mentor Program is designed to help student-athletes on their road to success by assisting in the development of transferable study skills.

ATHLETIC HONOR SOCIETY

The Athletic Honor Society, Spiritus Leonius, recognizes student-athletes for outstanding performance in athletics, academics, leadership, and community service.

Players rotate in a clockwise direction and serve when they are in the right back position. The libero (wearing a different color jersey) may take the place of any of the three backrow players and does not count as a team substitution.

Position Breakdown:

MH: Middle hitter, generally attacks from middle front
Opp.: Opposite or right side hitter, generally attacks from the right front
DS: Defensive Specialist, a substitution in the backrow for serving, passing and defensive purposes
S: Setter, generally handles the second contact to distribute the ball to the hitters, may only attack and block when in the front row
L: Libero, a backrow player concentrated on passing and defense; may serve; may not attack the ball above the height of the net; wears a different colored jersey to help distinguish "on-the-fly" entry into the game.

New Terminology and Scoring:

There are a few new rule changes in 2008. The NCAA coaches have decided to change the terminology "game" to "set" - so now matches consist of the best three-of-five sets. Also, instead of rally scoring to 30 points in the first four sets, sets will be played to 25. The fifth set will still be rally scoring to 15 points. Both changes were made to mirror international volleyball.

2008 SCHEDULE

SCHEDULE NOTES

• Matches against 11 teams that competed in the 2007 NCAA Tournament, including five ranked in the season-ending AVCA Top 25 Coaches Poll, highlight the 2008 Penn State women's volleyball schedule.

Among its opponents, the defending national champion Nittany Lions will take on NCAA Regional Finalist UCLA and NCAA Regional Semifinalist Michigan and Michigan State along with NCAA Tournament participants Minnesota, Purdue, Ohio, Long Island, Illinois State, Hawaii, Louisville and Wisconsin.

• Penn State holds a 383-66 (.853) record over opponents it will face during the 2008 regular season, including a 297-43 (.874) Big Ten record since joining the conference for the 1991 season.

• The slate also features first-time meetings with Ohio and Saint Louis in the sport of women's volleyball.

• The Nittany Lions open the schedule on Aug. 29-31 at the Hawaiian Airlines Invitational, taking on the host and No. 18 Wahine, No. 7 UCLA and Ohio in Honolulu. Penn State then returns home to begin the Rec Hall season with the Nittany Lion Invitational on Sept. 5-6, welcoming Long Island, George Washington and Villanova.

For the third weekend of the season, Penn State will head to the Chicagoland area for the Chicago Classic hosted by Illinois-Chicago on Sept. 12-13, where it will face the host Flames along with Illinois State and Louisville. The Nittany Lions will close out the preseason with the Penn State Classic on Sept. 19-20, hosting Yale, New Hampshire and Saint Louis.

Penn State opens up Big Ten play with Purdue and Illinois at Rec Hall. The Nittany Lions and Boilermakers will square off on Friday, Sept. 26 at 7:00 p.m. before the Lions host the Fighting Illini on Sunday, Sept. 28 at 1:00 p.m. The match was moved to Sunday to accommodate the Penn State-Illinois football game at Beaver Stadium on Saturday at 8:00 p.m.

With all seven starters – including four AVCA All-Americans - returning from the 2007 NCAA National Championship team that captured its fifth consecutive outright Big Ten title, some might be overly confident regarding the success of the 2008 squad. Head coach Russ Rose isn't one of those people. While still believing in his team and his program, he also recognizes that the 2008 squad and season hold new and different challenges.

"We have a great opportunity to work and get better, and we have some very talented players at key positions, and that should certainly lead us to be encouraged," said Rose, who will be entering his 30th season at the helm of the Penn State program, and is one of only three active coaches to surpass 900 career wins. "It's a long season, and with a new scoring system, it's going to place new demands on the players and the staff. We play a competitive schedule and compete in a great conference, and all of those things are certainly going to prepare us to see if we can make another post-season run."

In addition to the nine letterwinners returning from last year's 34-2 squad who finished the Big Ten season with a 20-0 record, the Nittany Lions will add five talented newcomers, including two with prior collegiate experience. These five players will be looked upon to fill the void left by seven lost letterwinners, two of whom played significant roles during their four-year careers.

"The 2008 team is a totally different team because we're missing so many components from last year's team," stated Rose. "You can't replace the leadership and sacrifice that Melissa Walbridge and Kate Price gave this team. If you're missing 40% of your players, it's hard to think that it is the same team and the same chemistry. Success always ends up being in the hands of the players. It depends on their ability to get along, listen, work hard and stay healthy."

OUTSIDE HITTER

Penn State returns arguably the best left-side tandem in the country with senior Nicole Fawcett and junior Megan Hodge, who were both tabbed AVCA First Team All-Americans a year ago.

"It would be easy to identify that the outside hitter position is one of our strengths," said Rose. "There are multiple All-American awards garnered within that position already and Megan and Nicole are both very strong from the endline and attacking from the back row. They can hit a variety of sets and are both strong at the net from a blocking standpoint. They are a great tandem and if we can keep them healthy and monitor their jumps, they are going to be key factors in the success of this year's team."

Fawcett is a three-time AVCA All-American and heads into the 2008 season with 1,512 career kills, good for fifth all-time on Penn State's career kills list. A member of the NCAA Championship All-Tournament team, Fawcett averaged 4.20 kills per game on .387 hitting with 12 aces, 22 digs and 26 blocks in NCAA action a year ago. For the season, Fawcett racked up 533 kills – an average of 4.44 kills per game – and her .313 hitting percentage ranked her 10th in the Big Ten. She led the team in service aces with 47, a mark that more than doubled her career total prior to the season, and also produced 177 digs and 101 blocks.

Hodge is a two-time AVCA All-American and ended the 2007 campaign with 561 total kills, the sixth-highest single-season kill total in Penn State women's volleyball history. She was named the NCAA Championship Most Outstanding Player and averaged 4.45 kills per game on .363 hitting with 40 digs in NCAA Tournament play, while also setting a new season high with 26 kills against Stanford in the title match. An all-around player, Hodge is also a mainstay in the Lion's passing rotation and defensive scheme as she recorded 13 double-doubles last year. She ranked second on the squad with 2.54 digs per game and 310 total digs, and also provided 35 service aces and 88 total blocks.

AVCA High School All-American Katie Kabbes, a 6-5 product from Raleigh, N.C., will join the mix and have the ability to compete on both the left and right side. Also posing a threat from the right side is Blair Brown, last year a Big Ten All-Freshman team honoree, along with junior Kelsey Ream and perhaps junior Alisha Glass.

"Blair and Alisha are executional blockers and Katie and Kelsey give us good depth and multiple personnel options," said Rose. "The right side may not be the main focal point of our offense but certainly their strength is that they are good at the net. Alisha has had the heaviest arm on the team since she came in as a freshman, so we might have opportunities to experiment more with the 6-2 and try some thing we weren't able to do before."

Kabbes comes to Penn State following an extremely successful scholastic career at Cardinal Gibbons High School in Raleigh, N.C., where she helped the school to three consecutive NCHSAA 2A State Championships. She ended her career as the school's record holder in career kills (1,500), career aces (221) and single-season kills (478). The 2007-08 Cardinal Gibbons Co-Female Athlete of the Year, Kabbes was twice the NCHSAA 2A Championship Most Outstanding Player and her No. 4 jersey has been retired.

Brown returns to the right side after recording 210 kills on .366 hitting there during her redshirt freshman campaign. A 2007 Big Ten All-Freshman Team honoree, Brown produced the fourth-highest blocking total on the squad with 101 and had double-digit kills in four matches. She provided a career-high nine blocks against VCU and added eight at Indiana, while setting a personal-best with 17 kills on .739 hitting at Iowa.

Ream saw action mainly as a serving specialist during the 2007 season, with three service aces including the NCAA Regional Final match-winner against Brigham Young at Rec Hall. She recorded three blocks against Saint John's while also adding in three digs.

Although she has directed the Nittany Lion offense to two consecutive national-bests in team hitting percentage, Alisha Glass is also an offensive threat herself. She ended last season with 91 kills on .327 hitting, including a season-high seven kills while attacking at a .400 clip in the National Championship win over Stanford. While in high school, Glass produced a single-match record of 48 kills in the 2006 Michigan state finals and is still the national high school record holder in career kills (3,584) and aces (937).

MIDDLE HITTER

What the squad lost in depth and experience from the graduation of 2005 AVCA All-American Melissa Walbridge, it makes up for with sheer athleticism in their returning duo. Senior AVCA First Team All-American Christa Harmotto and 2007 Big Ten Freshman of the Year Arielle Wilson, both ranked in the top five in the nation in hitting percentage, will provide point-scoring opportunities with both their offensive and defensive prowess.

"In my mind, we certainly have one of the better middle attacks in the country in Christa and Arielle, who both have the ability to hit in front of and behind the setter," said Rose. "Kelsey Ream could also see time in the middle as she is a calm individual who can enter the game in the instance that we need her and provide a different look and tempo to our opponents. We're strong in the middle, but our success there depends on how the entire squad plays. It really isn't a positional breakdown. The success of the middle hitters is dependent on how the team plays together and what we need to attack our opponents."

The 2007 Big Ten Player of the Year, Harmotto shattered the conference record for individual hitting percentage, attacking at a .492 clip for the season, which was also good for second in the nation. She just missed setting the NCAA Tournament record for hitting percentage (.564) as she attacked at a .548 mark with an average of 3.00 kills per game in the Lion's 20 tournament games. Harmotto produced 22 double-digit kill matches and ranked second on the team and in the conference, and sixth in the nation with a 1.65 blocks-per-game average. Her 167 block assists during 2007 is the second-highest total in Penn State history and her 516 career blocks make her only the sixth Lion ever to surpass the 500-career-blocks plateau.

Wilson came into her own as the 2007 season progressed and her growth eventually led her to being named the Most Outstanding Player of the University Park NCAA Regional Championship. She earned her first career start against Stanford on Sept. 15 and in her first Big Ten start just two weeks later, she averaged 3.60 kills per game on .536 hitting with 3.20 blocks per game in wins over Purdue and Indiana to capture Big Ten Player of the Week recognition. She ranked second on the team and in the league while sitting fifth in the nation with a hitting percentage of .445 and became just the third freshman ever to lead the Big Ten in blocking with an average of 1.78 blocks per game in conference-only matches. In the NCAA National Semifinal win over California, Wilson set a new career record for hitting percentage, attacking at a .909 mark with 10 kills and zero errors in 11 attempts while adding six blocks.

SETTER

To quarterback the offense, the Nittany Lions return 2007 AVCA Second Team All-American Alisha Glass, who last season led the squad to the highest combined team hitting percentage in the nation at .350. Glass will be supported by junior college transfer Kimi Hohl and true freshman Megan Shifflett.

"Alisha continues to develop into one of the top talents in the country," said Rose. "In a lot of people's eyes, she was the biggest surprise at the national championship last year because those people hadn't seen us play. I know the staff feels great about her development. She really grabbed the fifth game against Stanford and her competitive desire showed. We lost an experienced back-up setter so Kimi and Megan are going to have to be strong at that position to allow us to compete in practice."

In her two years as the starting setter for the Nittany Lions, Glass has directed the Penn State offense to a combined hitting percentage of .336 while averaging 16.94 kills per game as a team. Under her guidance, the Lions demolished the NCAA Tournament record for team hitting percentage (besting the previous mark of .369 set by the 1995 Long Beach State team), attacking at a combined .424 clip while averaging 16.75 kills per game through six matches. In 2007, Glass dished out 1,484 total assists and also ranked fourth on the team in digs with 198. A member of the NCAA Championship All-Tournament team, she tallied 108 total blocks, the highest number on the team from a non-middle hitter, and set a new five-game rally-scoring-era record with 14 blocks at Illinois.

Hohl comes to Penn State after leading Kishwaukee (Ill.) Community College to two NJCAA Division II National Championships. She twice set the school record for assists in a season and was an AVCA First Team All-American in 2007 during her sophomore campaign. Named the NJCAA National Championship Most Outstanding Player in 2007, Hohl recorded 3,191 career assists during her tenure with the Kougars.

Shifflett comes to Penn State after a successful career at Langley (Va.) High School. She helped her squad to a 78-12 scholastic record and was a two-time district Player of the Year, also earning First Team All-State and Northern Region Player of the Year honors.

LIBERO/DEFENSIVE SPECIALIST

Penn State returns some experience to the back row while also adding talent and quickness. Senior Roberta Holehouse last season led the team in digs while sophomore Alyssa D'Errico set a new career high in the national championship match against Stanford. The Nittany Lions add Boston College transfer Cathy Quilico to the squad and also will rely on Megan Shifflett, Kimi Hohl and freshman Heather Tice to provide depth.

"We lost a lot in the back row with the departure of some key players," said Rose. "Even though Kate Price was a former Big Ten Freshman of the Year while playing as an outside hitter, I felt she was the best clutch passer in the conference and her leadership was very critical to us last season. We also lost Kara Callahan, Ann Naylor, Michele Osterrieder and Caitlyn Hess, four players who worked hard in practice and had the ability to bring great energy to the gym and keep the ball in play. With Cathy, Megan, Kimi and Heather coming in, I think our back row skills may be a little better than last year, but we'll certainly miss the talents of our departed players."

Holehouse led the team last season with 471 digs as the squad's libero, a mark that places her seventh all-time on the single-season record list. She averaged 3.92 digs per game to rank first on the team and ninth in the Big Ten, and her total was produced on a squad that also ranked first in the Big Ten and second in the nation with 3.82 blocks per game. Holehouse recorded double-digit dig numbers in 30 matches and averaged 5.33 digs per game in NCAA Regional Championship wins over Michigan and Brigham Young. For the NCAA Tournament, she led the squad with 87 digs (4.35 digs per game) to go along with her team-high-tying 12 service aces.

D'Errico was a mainstay in the Penn State passing and defensive rotations last season, recording 108 digs for the year, good for sixth on the team. She set a new career high with 12 digs in the NCAA Championship match win over Stanford and she averaged 2.33 digs per game at the Penn State Classic, with a total of 21 digs. D'Errico produced 13 service aces over the course of the season and also added in 10 assists.

Quilico transferred to Penn State from Boston College, where she served as both a libero and defensive specialist. She led the team with 479 total digs for an average of 4.20 digs per game, a mark that ranked her ninth in the ACC. She posted 25 double-digit dig matches, including seven contests with 20 or more digs. Quilico set a personal-best with 33 digs in the five-game win over Virginia on Nov. 17 and also produced 25 digs in her first collegiate match at Delaware on Aug. 24.

Tice joins the team from Parkland High School in Allentown, Pa. She helped the Trojans to an 18-5 record her senior year, garnering first team all-conference, all-district and all-state honors. She was a two-time Parkland Outstanding Volleyball Player of the Year and led her squad to its highest-ever finish in the state, also being inducted into the Parkland Hall of Fame.

HEAD COACH RUSS ROSE

Russ Rose

➤ 30th Year at Penn State ➤ Career Record: 925-159
➤ Alma Mater: George Williams, 1975

Heading one of the most successful programs in the country, Russ Rose passes along the confidence and character he has gained during his tenure in Happy Valley.

It is a confidence not gleaned from the shine of numerous trophies and accolades bestowed upon the coach and the program, though no one would question if it was. In 29 seasons at Penn State, Rose has collected wins at a staggering pace. Never having posted less than 22 wins in a season, he enters the 2008 season as the NCAA leader in career winning percentage, having won more than 85% of the matches he has coached at Penn State. In 2007, Rose became only the third active Division I head coach to surpass the 900 career wins milestone. His teams have collected two national titles and 11 Big Ten championships in 17 years within the league, all while entrenching the Nittany Lions among the elite programs in the nation.

While he doesn't focus on personal accolades, Rose's accomplishments read like a laundry list of volleyball awards. In 2007 Rose was one of three coaches inducted into the American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) Hall of Fame and was also named the AVCA Division I National Coach of the Year, the AVCA Mideast Region Coach of the Year and the Big Ten Coach of the Year by both the coaches and the media. And in response to the awards, Rose focused the praise back on his teams.

"It's a great honor to be recognized by the governing organization of your sport," he said with regards to the Hall of Fame induction. "It's an individual award given to a coach of a team sport, so it's a reflection of the great players and staff, and the commitment the university has made to give us an opportunity to compete at a high level and have success."

Others also realize the impact that Rose has had on the volleyball community, not only in Pennsylvania but across the country.

"Halls of Fame are reserved for those who have done exceptional work for a long, long time," said AVCA Executive Director Kathy DeBoer. "These candidates are the best of the best, and credit Russ Rose with putting Penn State and the East on the volleyball map. His national championships, his remarkable string of elite teams and his parade of homegrown All-Americans have all contributed to making volleyball a national sport."

It was four of those homegrown All-Americans that aided Rose and the Nittany Lions down the long road to capturing the NCAA National Championship in 2007 by outlasting Stanford in five games in Sacramento, Calif. Juniors Nicole Fawcett and Christa Harmotto and sophomore Megan Hodge earned AVCA First Team All-America honors while sophomore Alisha Glass picked up AVCA Second Team All-America accolades, and it was those four who were the core of the Lion arsenal. Penn State finished the year with a 34-2 record and did not lose a contest after Sept. 15, dropping only 18 games in the entire season. The Nittany Lions ended the season ranked first in the country in hitting percentage, attacking at a Big Ten-record clip of .350, good for second all-time in the Penn State annals. The Nittany Lions also continued their dominance of the Big Ten, posting a perfect 20-0 record and capturing their unprecedented fifth consecutive outright conference title, a feat never before accomplished by a volleyball squad. Harmotto earned Big Ten Player of the Year honors by annihilating the conference record for hitting percentage. She attacked at a .492 clip for the year to top the previous record of .455 set in 1986.

Rose has a 29-year Penn State record of 925-159 (.853), making him the winningest active Division I coach.

➤ District II Coach of the Year 1996

➤ Six-time Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year

➤ Four-time Northeast Region Coach of the Year

In 2003, Rose celebrated 25 years of coaching at Penn State. He was honored with a bench outside of the post office sponsored by the Penn State Booster Club and surprised with a gathering of more than 40 former players and members of the program, who offered their thoughts and insights on Rose and his career.

"It was my sophomore year when he said 'When you leave this gym, when you finish your career, every day you leave here, you should feel like you gave 110 percent,'" said former player Christy Cochran (1995-98). "And that's exactly it. If you put your career in his hands, you'll be great."

Rose's influence in the lives of his former players is evident. "I truly miss him," said four-time All-American Bonnie Bremner (1996-99). "I don't even miss playing, I just miss seeing him every day."

However, even with all of his success on the court, Rose does not reflect on past successes. "Fans can get spoiled very quickly in athletics and that's a problem," Rose said. "It's not easy to be successful in anything and when people get accustomed to specific results, it sometimes loses its effect on the players and they forget what it really takes to succeed and how important the journey really should be to their development. The challenge is in getting players who want to become good and are willing to work instead of attending a school because the team is good."

Instead, Rose addresses each new team and season on its own terms and his confidence lies in the ability and work ethic of his current players and coaching staff.

"I'm not much of a believer in predicting a team's level of success," Rose said. "I can only state that we're going to do our best. If we're good enough to win matches then we're going to win matches, but if we lose it's never going to be because we didn't prepare and work hard and it's not going to be because we rested on our program's previous laurels."

For a good example of this statement, look no further than the 1999 season. Following two consecutive campaigns which saw the Lions reach the title match of the NCAA Tournament only to fall in defeat, the team returned to the NCAA Tourney finale in 1999 and captured the first National Championship in the program's history with a 3-0 sweep over top-ranked Stanford. The 1999 season also saw Rose lead Penn State to its second-consecutive 20-0 record in Big Ten play (and fourth straight conference title), becoming the first team in conference history to pull off the feat. In addition, the 1999 Nittany Lions extended their NCAA record home-match winning streak to 80 straight (extended to 87 in 2000), eclipsing the previous standard of 58 set by Florida from 1990-94. The Lions streak was finally put to a halt at 87 matches with a loss versus Minnesota on Sept. 29, 2000. Penn State had last dropped a match at Rec Hall on Nov. 24, 1994, when they suffered a 3-2 setback to Illinois, a span of over five seasons.

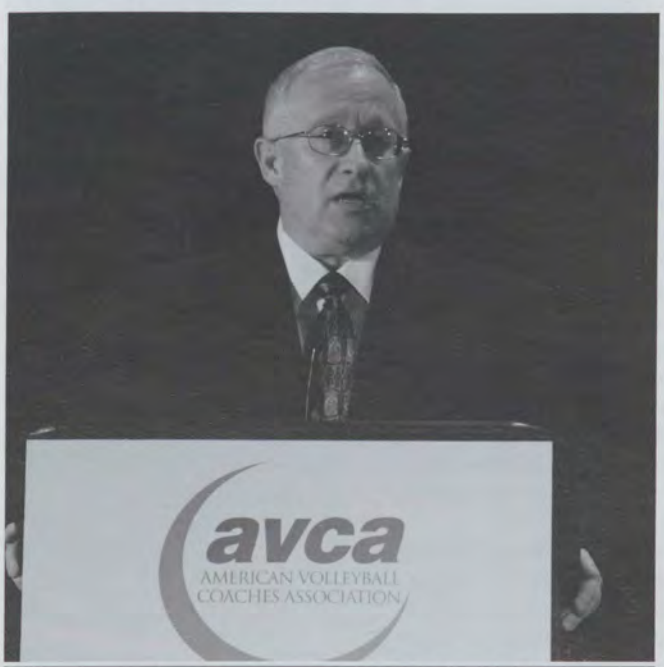
After posting a runner-up finish in 1997, the Lions made it back to the NCAA Championship match in 1998. The team cruised through the regular season with a 30-0 mark, with 28 of those coming in three games. Penn State also became only the second school to close out the Big Ten schedule with a perfect 20-0 mark.

After winning its fifth Big Ten title, Penn State hosted the NCAA First and Second Rounds and the Central Regional. They swept past Bucknell, Clemson, Louisville and Brigham Young to earn a spot in the school's fourth national semifinal. Once they reached Madison, Wis., the season ended much like 1997. Penn State defeated Nebraska 3-1 to advance to the national championship match. And once again, the Lions had to rally from a 0-2 deficit to force a fifth game only to come up short against Long Beach State for the NCAA title.

However, perhaps nowhere has Rose's infusion of confidence been more evident than in the two other years when he led an inexperienced team with one starting senior and a rookie setter deep into the postseason.

In 1996, the Lions started out 15-0, before finishing the regular season with a 29-2 mark and a share of the Big Ten title, Rose's third in six seasons in the conference. The squad that took the court in the NCAA tournament was comprised of one senior, one junior, one sophomore and three freshmen. That talented group came two points from knocking off Nebraska at home, in a match to go to the national semifinal. Penn State finished the campaign with a 31-3 record and a final ranking of No. 5. Half of those starters, Bonnie Bremner, Angie Kammer and Terri Zemaitis, earned All-America honors, while Bremner became Penn State's first Big Ten Freshman of the Year for her play at setter.



➤ Rose was inducted into the AVCA Hall of Fame, held in conjunction with the 2007 NCAA National Championship in Sacramento.

The 1995 squad posted a 27-8 record and a No. 8 final national ranking. Rose's ability to convey a belief in his players and to instill an uncompromising work ethic led to the Nittany Lions' sixth straight appearance in the NCAA Regionals and a third-place finish in the Big Ten. Along the way he guided Penn State's third Big Ten Player of the Year in just five seasons in the conference as sophomore Zemaitis captured the award.

> "I have been coaching here for a long time, but I don't want to take the major responsibility for the program's success because I know one thing for sure, and that is you can't get where we are today without the total support of the administration. You need to have good leadership and financial support to compete with the nation's elite."

"I want the players to have a good experience — I want them to enjoy the many opportunities available at Penn State, but clearly I want them to know that they've come to a competitive, disciplined program and we're going to work hard," Rose said. "And without question have some fun along the way.

"We're not fanatics, and I want the players to be happy. It goes without saying that it is easier to be happy when you're winning than when you're losing. So, the staff will have to provide them with the necessary direction and opportunities and hope they remain healthy enough to see if we can make a run at winning as many matches as possible."

That is something that has never been a problem for the coach. In his 29 seasons at Penn State, Rose's record is 925-159, an .853 winning percentage that places him first nationally among active coaches. His squads have secured 30 or more wins in a season 21 times and 36 or more victories six times.

In 1994, Rose coached the Nittany Lions to a second straight NCAA national semifinal appearance and picked up his 500th career win early in the season. Placing second in the Big Ten with a 17-3 conference mark, the Nittany Lions posted a 31-4 ledger on the year and ended the regular-season ranked No. 5, at the time their highest regular-season finish ever. Season highlights included beating national runner-up and perennial powerhouse UCLA at the Volleyball Monthly Invitational and stunning No. 1-ranked and undefeated Nebraska in Lincoln in front of a full house at the NCAA Mideast Regional final to advance to their second straight national semifinal.

> Rose's athletes have earned 50 First Team All-Big Ten honors in 17 years and have excelled off the court as well, earning 115 Academic All-Big Ten accolades.

Rose added to an already crowded trophy case by picking up the NCAA Mideast Region Coach of the Year honor for the fourth time.

Still, Rose has had more to do with Penn State's success on the court than he's willing to admit.

"I think that it's a reflection of my years of service and the caliber and commitment of players and staff we've attracted in the past," Rose said. "When you retire from coaching, people will look and see the success you had, but I'd like to be evaluated on the success of my players, their feel for their experience at Penn State and the growth that the program has had from the time I arrived here. We had three in-state scholarships and hand-me-down basketball jerseys when I arrived at Penn State. I think that's more of a reflection of what I was hoping to accomplish when I entered the profession."

Yet, the on-the-court accomplishments do speak volumes. In 1993, another dream season, the Nittany Lions surged into their third year of Big Ten play and won their second consecutive conference title. At the NCAA Tournament, the team strung together four victories and earned the right to play for the National Championship against Long Beach State. Rose puts the success in proper perspective.

"There are a large number of excellent coaches at great schools that have yet to break into the national semifinals. There are a small number of teams that have made it there, and fewer yet that have reached the final match. I won't look at it (reaching the final match) other than it was a great ride that the players took us on and it reinforced that there's validity to how I've run the program here at Penn State.

"The players need to understand what it takes to be successful and they need to have fun. We showed that winning can be fun and that it isn't necessary to change in a stressful environment. Every team starts with the same dream but few programs can really talk about competing for a chance to win a National Championship."

Rose's formula for success was recognized by the media and his coaching peers when he garnered the triple-crown of coaching accolades in 1993 as he did in 1990. Volleyball Monthly named Rose the National Coach of the Year and he also was picked as the NCAA Mideast Region and the Big Ten Conference Coach of the Year.

It was the second time Rose was honored nationally (1990), and the second straight year the Big Ten voted for the Nittany Lion leader. In addition, he was awarded Northeast Region Coach of the Year four times, the Atlantic 10 Conference Coach of the Year six times and was District II's top coach in 1996.

"Coach is a great guy," confided three time All-American Salima (Davidson) Rockwell, who spent time as the captain and starting setter on the U.S. National Team and is now an assistant coach for the team. "He's very straight-forward and to the point, which is what I like. The thing about him is that you can talk to him and he can help you with any problems you might have. Then, on the court, he's all business. I like that combination."

So does former Nittany Lion outside hitter and former volunteer assistant coach Jen Reimers. "You learn how to be a better person and a better play-

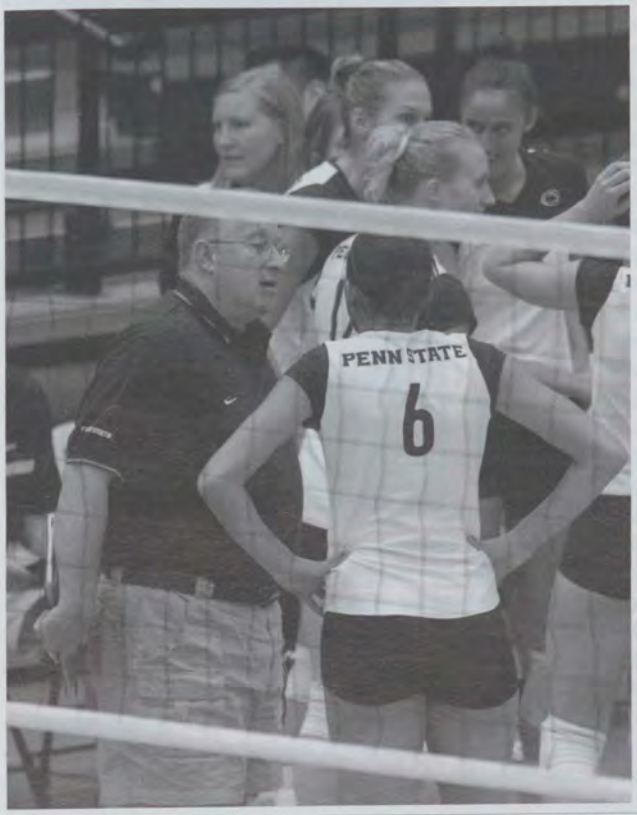
"I really enjoyed the experience I had while playing for Coach Rose," said All-American Katie Schumacher (1998-01). "I learned a lot, both on and off the court. He is a great teacher and is well-respected around the nation."

Many athletes have thrived under Rose's tutelage as witnessed by the 26 different All-Americans (earning 52 selections in all) and 24 first team All-Big Ten players (earning 50 selections in all) he has coached. In 1999, Lauren Cacciamani was named Big Ten Player of the Year, the Big Ten Female Athlete of the Year and the Honda Award winner. Bonnie Bremner and Katie Schumacher joined Cacciamani as All-Big Ten selections in 1999. Bremner won back-to-back Big Ten Player of the Year honors in 1997 and 1998. Amanda Rome and Carrie Schonveld were recognized with honorable mention All-Big Ten status, while Mishka Levy was named to the conference's All-Freshman squad. Penn State also placed six players on the Academic All-Big Ten Team in 1999, as Bremner, Cacciamani, Kalna Miller, Schonveld, Rome and Dawn Ippolito were honored.

In 2000, Schumacher repeated as an All-Big Ten performer, while Levy earned first-team status for the initial time in her career. Amanda Rome was recognized with honorable mention all-conference status after helping lead Penn State to a 30-6 record and its 11th consecutive NCAA regional appearance in 2000. In addition, Rome, Ippolito, Shannon Bortner, Robyn Guokas, Erin Iceman and Hilary Sexton were named Academic All-Big Ten.

Even with its 22-8 season in 2001, Penn State advanced to the NCAA Tournament and garnered 20 wins in a season for the 26th straight year. Schumacher earned first team All-Big Ten honors while Levy picked up honorable mention accolades. Seven Lions earned Academic All-Big Ten recognition during the 2001 campaign. Rome, Iceman, Guokas, Bortner, Sexton, Tabitha Eshleman and Emily Gerega were all recognized for their scholastic and athletic achievements.

In 2002, Rose led a young squad with a freshman setter to a second place finish in the conference and the school's 22nd consecutive NCAA Tournament. Freshman Sam Tortorello earned Penn State's second ever Big Ten Freshman of the Year accolade and junior Cara Smith picked up second team All-America honors after leading the nation in hitting percentage for most of the season. The Nittany Lions also excelled in the classroom, with a conference-high nine athletes garnering Academic All-Big Ten honors.



The squad picked up its seventh Big Ten title in 2003 with a team that was picked to finish second in the conference preseason poll. Seniors Cara Smith and Erin Iceman and sophomore Sam Tortorello were named first team All-Big Ten on a squad that finished 17-3 in league play to earn its 23rd consecutive NCAA berth. Freshman Cassy Salyer earned Big Ten Freshman of the Year honors and Rose was honored with his sixth Big Ten Coach of the Year accolade. Penn State advanced to the NCAA Regional Final match at Florida, falling to the Gators in three games.

Smith, Tortorello and Iceman picked up AVCA All-America honors with Smith earning first team accolades, Tortorello being named to the second team and Iceman picking up honorable mention honors.

HEAD COACH RUSS ROSE

➤ The Women's Volleyball Booster Club marked Rose's 25 years of coaching in 2003 by dedicating a bench, located outside of the post office on Fraser Street in State College.

Again picked to finish second in the Big Ten in 2004, Rose's squad ended the non-conference portion of their schedule with an unblemished 9-0 record that included a come-from-behind five-game victory at eventual-National Champion Stanford. Top-ranked Minnesota handed the Nittany Lions their first loss of the season in five games at Rec Hall and just five matches later, No. 7 Ohio State also defeated Penn State at home in five games. With a renewed sense of pride following the two losses at home, the Nittany Lions caught fire and won their next 11 matches, including four-game wins over the Gophers and Buckeyes. A three-game win at Michigan on Nov. 27 gave Rose and the Nittany Lions their eighth Big Ten title in 14 years and advanced them to their 24th consecutive NCAA Tournament, where they fell to UCLA at the NCAA Regional Semifinal in Seattle, Wash.

Sam Tortorello and Syndie Nadeau earned AVCA All-America honors as Tortorello was named to the first team and Nadeau picked up second team accolades. Libero Kaleena Walters joined Tortorello and Nadeau on the All-Big Ten squad as Kate Price was named the Big Ten Freshman of the Year. Tortorello was also a finalist for the Honda Award, given to the top female collegiate athlete in the country in each sport. Penn State produced four Academic All-Big Ten honorees that year.

The streak continued as the Nittany Lions claimed their third consecutive Big Ten title with an unblemished 20-0 league record in 2005, only the sixth time since 1985 that the champion had been perfect. In addition to dropping only three individual games during the conference season, Penn State swept all four major honors. Rose earned his seventh Big Ten Coach of the Year award as Sam Tortorello was named the Player of the Year, Kaleena Walters earned Defensive Player of the Year honors and Nicole Fawcett was tabbed as the Freshman of the Year.

On the national scale, Fawcett earned AVCA National Freshman of the Year and AVCA Second Team All-America accolades as Tortorello was named an AVCA First Team All-American, Melissa Walbridge picked up Second Team honors and Walters and Christa Harmotto both earned honorable mention recognition. Tortorello was also a finalist for the Honda Award for the second time.

Penn State made league history with the 2006 season, capturing its fourth consecutive outright title, the first time in Big Ten annals one team had done so. The Nittany Lions finished with an 18-2 league record and an overall record of 32-3, falling to defending national champion Washington in Seattle, Wash., in the NCAA Regional Finals. Megan Hodge made some history of her own, becoming the first freshman in conference history to be named Big Ten Player of the Year, also earning AVCA First Team All-America honors along with being named Big Ten and AVCA National Freshman of the Year. Joining her in garnering conference and national recognition were Nicole Fawcett and Christa Harmotto, who both earned First Team All-Big Ten honors, as Fawcett was named an AVCA First Team All-American and Harmotto picked up Second Team accolades. The Nittany Lions also produced a league-best 10 Academic All-Big Ten honorees.

➤ Rose captured his 900th career win on Sept. 21, 2007, and was presented with a Lion statue by his son Nick, along with Director of Athletics Tim Curley and University President Dr. Graham Spanier.

Prior to entering the tough Big Ten Conference in 1991, Penn State experienced unprecedented success in the Atlantic 10 Conference, winning eight straight championships. In seven seasons of round-robin play, the Nittany Lions never lost a conference match, reeling off 49 consecutive wins. The 1990 season was Penn State's last in the Atlantic 10 and it proved to be one of the most exciting in the 25-year history of the program.

Unbeaten in 42 regular-season matches, the Nittany Lions swept Purdue and Big Ten champion Wisconsin in the first two rounds of the NCAA Tournament. Of the team's 44 wins, 40 were sweeps, a school and national record. Penn State, 12-0 against NCAA Tournament teams, lost to Nebraska in four games in the Mideast Region championship match in Lincoln.

Penn State finished sixth in the final 1990 Tachikara Coaches Poll, the program's highest final ranking ever at the time and the AVCA and Volleyball Monthly named three Nittany Lions —Jo Ann Elwell, Michelle Jaworski and Noelle Zientara — All-Americans.

An 11-time nominee for National Coach of the Year, Rose garnered the Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year award in 1984, '85, '87, '88, '89 and '90.

Throughout his career, Rose has been called upon to share his expertise with the coaches and players who represent the United States in international competition. In 1989, he was an assistant coach with the United States men's national team for an exhibition series with Canada and the Soviet Union. His work on the international scene was to have continued in July of that year, but personal commitments and time constraints prevented him from accepting the position as head coach of the U.S. women's team to the Maccabiah Games.

In 1990, Rose worked with members of the men's national and developmental teams during training camp in San Diego. In 1993, he assisted in the U.S. men's matches with Canada and the women's team against China. He also assisted with the U.S. men as they prepared for the 2000 Olympics in Sydney.

In the summer of 2002, Rose assisted the U.S. men's team on a 13-day tour of Italy where the athletes competed against the world's top teams, including Brazil, Italy, Yugoslavia, Russia and Holland. He also served as team manager for the U.S. men's team at the Four Nations Tournament in Leipzig, Germany, in May of 2008.

An instructor in the USVBA coaches certification program, Rose has previously served as a national referee and evaluator and state director for volleyball for the Special Olympics.

In 2005, USA Volleyball named Rose one of their All-Time Great Coaches, making him the first Big Ten coach to ever receive the honor and putting him in the company of the best volleyball coaches in history, including previous Olympic coaches as well as many of their peers.

Rose was a member of the NCAA Division I Volleyball Committee for six years and the NCAA representative to the United States Volleyball Association Rules Committee.

Rose served as head coach of the U.S. men's team, which won the bronze medal at the 1985 Maccabiah Games, and the U.S. women's silver medal team in the 1981 Maccabiah Games. He won bronze medals as an assistant coach of the women's team in the 1982 National Sports Festival and as the East women's head coach at the 1983 Festival.

An active clinician, Rose also coached professional men's volleyball in the Superior League in Puerto Rico in 1976 and has continued to do clinics on the island as well as in the United States.

Players are not the only ones to benefit from Rose's tutelage. More than 25 individuals within the college coaching fraternity have gained instruction from Rose.

A 1975 graduate of George Williams College, Rose was a member of the school's team that won the 1974 National Association for Intercollegiate Athletics national championship. He was the captain of the 1975 team that finished third in NAIA competition.

After graduation, Rose remained at George Williams for two years as a part-time coach, helping the women's team win two state titles and place sixth in national competition. He also assisted the men's team that won the national championship in 1977.

In 1978, he completed his master's degree at Nebraska, where he was the defensive coach for the Cornhusker women. While writing his thesis on volleyball statistics, he led the second team to a two-year varsity mark of 52-5.

In 1986, Rose married Lori Barberich, a former three-time All-American at Penn State. They are the parents of four sons, Jonathan, Michael, Christopher and Nicholas.

THE ROSE COACHING PHILOSOPHY

Russ Rose has taken Penn State from the regionally competitive level to that of an NCAA power since he took over the Penn State women's volleyball program in 1979. The development has been complete and successful, because of excellent talent and an equally sound method.

Following is "The Rose Coaching Philosophy:"

COACH'S ROLE

"I believe the coach has numerous roles that require constant review and attention. First, and foremost, is the recruitment of quality student-athletes. With effective coaching, student-athletes have always been the key to a team's success."

"Secondly, we as a staff have to relate to the players what we feel is important for their growth and success. All the knowledge in the world will prove to be useless if we can't prepare our team for competition. We've shown this to be one of our strengths. I have great confidence that Dennis and especially Salima, having played for me, understand me and the program, and Nate with his technical background, I know they will do whatever it takes to help the players improve and pursue their dreams."

"Third, we have to prepare the team, physically, tactically and mentally. The physical preparation is easy, as the entire Penn State environment encourages the pursuit of excellence as shown by our years of high finishes in the Director's Cup results. The fact that five of our fall sports teams have won Big Ten titles more than reinforces that school of thought. The mental aspect of our players' development is one of the areas that I feel has separated us from our competition. We are committed as a group to reaching the highest levels possible - year in and year out. The team understands the need to be accountable, and I'm not hesitant to get their focus headed in the right direction."

"Certainly our time in the Big Ten has demonstrated to us the importance of making sure that the players are aware of what is going to be expected of them in a conference as strong as the Big Ten. It's been the strongest conference in the country as determined by the RPI and has led the nation in attendance for a number of years."

"Outside the Big Ten, we commit to play a competitive non-conference schedule. We continually strive to meet teams during the regular-season that have advanced in the national championship playoffs. It is a goal of mine for Penn State to always be in the top five in strength of schedule."

"I contend that the best way to see where our team is and where we aspire to be, is to play the nation's best teams. Our administration has allowed us to compete annually for the national championship. Universities enable teams to compete for the national championship. I have been blessed to have an administration that possessed the vision to support our program and I feel we have been able to deliver. It starts at the top with a University President and Athletic Director and staff who guide and assist the program."

"I think our role here is to attract the type of player who wants to be at Penn State, understands what we are about and knows what it will take to fit into our program. I refuse to be in the position where we are going to be saying one thing to get a player interested in Penn State and then change our story once the athlete arrives on campus. I am interested in players who are willing to be up front, committed and passionate in what they see in their own development and what we can do to help them succeed."

"Over the years I have been contacted by numerous schools as well as the U.S. National Team and foreign professional teams regarding recent coaching positions, however I feel that the support I receive from the administration at Penn State is perfect for me, and I have no interest in coaching anywhere but Penn State."

TEAM PLAY

"Team play really deals with volleyball being the ultimate team sport. The greatest thing you can talk about and plan for is the opportunity for a team to compete for a national championship. You must communicate and sacrifice to be successful. All the players must possess a wide variety of skills and be willing and able to play together. My approach is to select the best combination of players who will play together and at the same time seek to fulfill their own roles and goals.

"The team that is willing to emphasize the pursuit of excellence at its own persona expense is the team that most often succeeds. Our success over the years, where we have won numerous conference titles and advanced to the national semifinal and championship matches, continues to reinforce these beliefs. 1999's and 2007's National Championships were clearly the icing on the cake. A National Championship does not validate a coach or their program. It highlights the efforts of many and allows the community to celebrate the actions of the team. Our goal is to remain at that level and even if we fall short, we know that we are in the game. The pursuit is the challenge and getting to the final match is the reward."

FUNDAMENTALS

"Fundamentals and the player's development of them are the most important aspect of the game. I know it's a tedious process, but you need to spend a great deal of time on the skills and make sure the players understand the importance of execution. We try to recruit student-athletes who are great volleyball players but the game always comes down to the execution of the core fundamentals. I will not sacrifice the time necessary to develop a strong foundation. This is where a team's discipline and confidence is first introduced and developed. Our commitment to each team is for every one of our players to be challenged to become the best they can be every day. I know our players are constantly improving their game here. I can't guarantee victories but I can guarantee a player will improve at Penn State, and that is evidenced by the number of athletes who have received individual awards or chosen to further their careers with the national team or elect to play professionally."

TEAM DEFENSE

"Team defense is one of the aspects of coaching that I really enjoy. It has always been one of the staples of our program. The pursuit of the ball in a game can only occur through preparation and repetition. I believe that everyone in the program has to rally around certain principles. At Penn State, we play hard, controlled defense, which means every player pursues every ball or they are taken out. I believe if you train hard, then the game itself begins to appear easy. If a player starts making decisions on what ball they think they can get and what they think is somebody else's ball, that's when we try to make some adjustments and get someone else involved in the play. Our defensive philosophy is to keep every ball in play — every day of each season in practice as well as games. I believe we have shown this works over the long haul as well. Defense and winning are an attitude and we attempt to do the latter by emphasizing the former."

THE ROSE COACHING PHILOSOPHY

STUDENT-ATHLETE

"The term student-athlete is a very valid one here at Penn State and in the Big Ten. We recruit not only quality athletes, but quality students as well. There is no question in my mind that the well-rounded individual will be better prepared to deal with the numerous challenges faced in life. The programs available at Penn State are geared for success. The opportunity to pursue your potential, both academically and athletically, is in place and working well at Penn State. The student support services at Penn State and the job Jim Weaver does with our team is outstanding. It is a reflection of the entire athletic department's commitment to provide the necessary services for the student-athletes to pursue and achieve their dreams."

"I expect a commitment both to academics and athletics. I take great pride in the fact that every young woman who has entered our program and completed her playing eligibility has received her degree. Rankings of the 29 athletic programs on campus reveal that the women's volleyball team annually posts one of the highest cumulative grade-point averages. With proper emphasis on the importance of maintaining high academic standards, I know we will achieve continual success. At Penn State, we have had the most members of the Academic All-Big Ten team as a sport and an institution since joining the conference, and that speaks volumes about our student-athletes as well as our academic advising staff."

THE BIG TEN CONFERENCE

"The Big Ten, in my opinion, is certainly the premier athletic conference in the nation. It is a conference that is totally committed to the pursuit of excellence. The opportunity to play volleyball in the Big Ten truly enhances our program. The excitement generated by the athletes and fans at matches is great for the sport. It continues to be a great environment in which to compete. The conference has been ranked No. 1 in the volleyball RPI ratings since 1998 and again led the nation in attendance in 2006 and 2007."

PENN STATE UNIVERSITY

"Penn State as a school has been very fortunate and good for women's volleyball. I don't think there is another school in the country that has the support of everyone from the president of the university to the athletic director to the residents of State College. The university president routinely drops by practices and uses the players in university functions to help increase the visibility of the program and university. I am extremely optimistic on the future of Penn State women's volleyball and there is no place in the country I'd rather be than Penn State. The community has supported us during our development and the university's commitment is to be the best in everything it offers, from academics, music and the arts to athletics."

RECRUITING

"It is our goal to encourage quality student athletes to visit Penn State with their parents to get a realistic view of what is really entailed with what we refer to as the 'Penn State Experience.' The campus, the environment and face of State College truly separates us from many of the other schools in the country as we exemplify the meaning of a 'college town.' The chemistry that exists between the team members is what has kept us competitive and the energy that exists between the university and the town of State College keeps the juices flowing. We want players that want to make a commitment to be the best that they can be. We also want players to be aware of the fact that I am looking for a level of accountability from them as well. I'm not looking for a situation where I'm going to spend 24 hours a day, seven days a week trying to monitor their lifestyles or get involved in preventing them from having a good time. I believe the college experience at this time in their lives is the greatest opportunity to have fun and explore. I think you live hard and play hard and at Penn State, the students have a great opportunity to have fun in multiple areas."

STAFF

"I feel great about our staff. We are fortunate to have Dennis (Hohenshelt) and Salima (Rockwell). Very few players had the impact that Salima had while she was here and I know she has been a fantastic addition to the program. The position of Director of Volleyball Operations has also demonstrated the university's commitment to women's volleyball and I feel great about the addition of Nate Kitrush. His time in the Big Ten will allow him to hit the ground running and his experience with the men's game is a great advantage. Some people would think that having people who are from their alma mater would be a negative but I see it as a positive. It's a positive thing to have people with experience involved because they know in this program, they are going to be encouraged to have an opinion and their opinions are going to be heard. I respect what my former players have to say and the players can turn to them and get good feedback and not be dependent on having to interact with me all of the time. The addition of Dennis from the men's side of the game brings a wealth of knowledge to our program and I know the players reap the benefits of interacting with him in the gym. An additional benefit that is important in our philosophy is that we try and look at the strengths of the players and how best to get them to contribute as well as continue to meet their goals. We think it's a tremendous bonus. We're one of five schools in the country who have had a men's and a women's team that have won a national championship and the only school outside of California that can make that claim and I think it's terrific that volleyball is on the map here year round. The interaction between the men's and women's programs here is exceptional. Both schools winning the National Title during the same academic year allows the sport to be valued here by our many fans and the great student support."

BOOSTER CLUB

"Our Booster Club is unbelievable and committed to assisting the players in their transition to Penn State, as well as supporting us in going on our foreign trips. They make so many things possible and the team and the staff know how fortunate we are to have their support. The 2001 trip to Cuba and the 2005 spring trip to Italy were both great experiences and shared by 20 members of the Booster Club. They are already getting started for our next trip to Brazil in May of 2009."

ASSISTANT COACH DENNIS HOHENSHELT

Dennis Hohenshelt

- Third Year at Penn State
- Alma Mater: Juniata, 1993

Dennis Hohenshelt begins his third season with the Penn State women's volleyball program after spending 10 seasons as the Nittany Lion men's volleyball assistant coach. Among other duties, Hohenshelt is involved in match preparation, player development and recruiting.

"Every year Dennis gets better and better as he learns what I need as well as the nuances about the women's game," said head coach Russ Rose. "He did a great job with Arielle (Wilson) and her development last year, and the players like him. He keeps things loose and is a valuable member of our staff."

Under Hohenshelt's tutelage, freshman middle hitter Arielle Wilson was named the Big Ten Freshman of the Year and the University Park NCAA Regional Championship Most Outstanding Player. For the season, she attacked at a .446 clip while averaging 2.39 kills per game, and in Big Ten-only matches, Wilson became just the second freshman ever to lead the conference in blocks, averaging 1.78 blocks per game. In all matches, Wilson tallied 1.80 blocks per game, good for first on the team and third in the nation.

Hohenshelt aided the Penn State men's team in reaching the 2006 national championship match for the first time in 11 seasons, defeating then-No. 1 UC Irvine in five games in the national semifinal contest at Rec Hall. During his tenure with the men's team, Penn State accumulated an overall record of 237-82 (.743), including a 110-4 (.965) mark in the Eastern Intercollegiate Volleyball Association (EIVA) and nine EIVA titles and National Collegiate Championship appearances. He was also instrumental in recruiting the core of men's volleyball players who captured the 2008 NCAA National Championship.

Boasting a considerable amount of experience with USA Volleyball, Hohenshelt was a coaching assistant with the 2004 USA Boy's Youth National Team that won the NORCECA Zone gold medal. He was also the assistant coach for the USA Boy's Junior National Team during the summer of 2002 in Brazil and helped lead the U.S. Junior National Team to a third-place finish at the NORCECA Championships. He assisted with the U.S. Boy's Youth National Team in the summer of 1997 and scouted for the U.S. Men's National Team at the 1997 World Cup. He also aided at the tryouts for the U.S. Men's National and Junior National teams.

A native of Harrisburg, Pa., and a 1993 graduate of Juniata College, Hohenshelt led the Eagles to consecutive EIVA Division III titles in 1992 and 1993, earning Most Valuable Player accolades his senior year. After receiving his bachelor of science degree in secondary education and social studies, Hohenshelt served two years as an assistant coach for the Juniata men's program from 1994-95. He was promoted to head coach in 1996 and led the Eagles to an 18-8 record and a second place finish in the EIVA Division III Tournament.

Hohenshelt also was assistant coach at Huntingdon (Pa.) High School from 1993-1995.

He is married to the former Tara Rowlyk, who is an assistant coach for the Penn State women's lacrosse team. The couple has one son, Jacob, who was born in July of 2005.

Salima Rockwell

- Third Year at Penn State
- Alma Mater: Penn State, 1994

Salima Rockwell begins her third season on the Penn State women's volleyball coaching staff and her second as an assistant coach after serving as the Director of Volleyball Operations in 2006. Rockwell's primary duties include working with the setters and the offense, recruiting and match preparation.

The former Salima Davidson was a three-time All-American setter for the Nittany Lions from 1991-94 and served as a two-time team captain of the U.S. National Team during her time with the squad from 1995-99. She returned to Penn State after spending the 2005 season as an assistant coach at Oregon State under legendary head coach Terry Liskevych.

"Very few people in the country are as good at their job as Salima is at hers," said head coach Russ Rose. "She has a great feel for winning and has the ability to bridge the experience of playing at Penn State and interacting with me. The fact that she advanced to being the captain of the women's national team speaks to her drive and leadership. Her energy is fabulous and the players really respond well to her, and we are very fortunate to have her back at Penn State."

Under the guidance of Rockwell, setter Alisha Glass directed the 2007 Penn State offense to a nation-leading and Big Ten-record hitting percentage of .350, just shy of the Nittany Lion record of .367 set in 1990. Two of Glass' hitters - middles Christa Harmotto and Arielle Wilson - finished in the top five in the nation in hitting percentage while two more hitters - outsides Nicole Fawcett and Megan Hodge - ended the year averaging more than 4.40 kills per game each. In Glass' two year career, the Penn State offense is attacking at an astounding .336 hitting percentage.

A native of Pittsburgh, Pa., Rockwell was an assistant at the University of Pittsburgh from 2001-03 where she worked primarily with the Panthers' setters. She was also the Panthers' lead recruiter and signed four of their top five recruits in 2002.

Rockwell captained the USA National Team in 1997 and 1998, serving as the starting setter for the Americans and earning the Coaches' Award, MVP and the Team Award in each of those seasons.

Rockwell also spent three years in the ultra-competitive world of pharmaceutical sales, consistently ranking as a top selling representative.

She still ranks fourth all-time on Penn State's career assists list with 5,455, and sits fourth on the career assists per game list (12.34). She ranks fifth on the career digging charts with 1,278 and sits 14th all-time on the career hitting percentage list (.301). An all-around player, Rockwell also ranks 11th on the career total blocks chart with 382 and was inducted into the Pennsylvania Volleyball Coaches Hall of Fame. A two-time member of the NCAA Championship All-Tournament team (1993 & 1994), Rockwell also earned All-Big Ten accolades four times, including three First Team selections. She graduated in 1994 with a Bachelor of the Arts in Speech Communications.

Rockwell and her husband, Jeff, have one son, Logan, who was born in October of 2004.

Nate Kitrush

➤ Director of Volleyball Operations
➤ Alma Mater: IPFW, 2008 ➤ First Year at PSU

Nate Kitrush begins his first season with the Penn State women's volleyball team as the Director of Volleyball Operations and technical coordinator. His duties include team travel logistics and day-to-day organization as well as being the primary technical operator of the Data Volley and Data Video.

"We had a lot of people who were interested in our opening for Director of Volleyball Operations and Nate was the one who I thought best filled the needs that we had in the area of video and technical analysis," said head coach Russ Rose. "It was a very important hire for us and I have been very pleased with his focus and skills."

A 2008 graduate of IPFW, Kitrush was most recently an assistant coach for the IPFW men's volleyball team as well as a volunteer assistant coach with the Purdue women's volleyball team. With both squads his duties included opponent video analysis and breakdown, charting offensive and defensive tendencies, aiding with on-campus recruiting and a multitude of organizational responsibilities. Kitrush was also involved in the coaching aspect of the game with the Mastodons, helping the team to a berth in the NCAA National Semifinals in 2006.

Kitrush played for legendary IPFW men's coach Arnie Ball for one season before moving over to the managerial side and has also coached within the club ranks, helping the Munciana 17-1's squad to a third-place finish at the Junior Olympic Championship in 2005. He has been an active camp clinician since 2004, working with the IPFW and Purdue women's camps as well as the Ohio State men's camps. Kitrush has also been the coordinator for the IPFW alumni squad that annually participates in the USAV Adult Open Nationals.

A native of Fort Wayne, Ind., Kitrush began his volleyball career as a three-year letterwinner at Northrop High School. He was an all-conference and all-state honoree as a senior and helped lead the squad to the state tournament three times, including two appearances in the state finals.

Jill Wosmek

➤ Athletic Trainer ➤ Second Year at PSU
➤ Alma Mater: Minnesota-Mankato, 2003

Jill Wosmek begins her second season with the Penn State women's and men's volleyball teams as the athletic trainer and also as an Approved Clinical Instructor for the athletic training students. Her duties include injury and illness assessment, rehabilitation, therapeutic treatments and various manual therapies as well as working closely with the team physicians and strength and conditioning staffs.

"I thought that Jill did a great job last season," said head coach Russ Rose. "A great deal of our success was based on the commitment that she made to monitor the players in their development in areas that she controlled. Jill is a great example of someone who came in and really connected well with our players and enhanced many of the things that this group really needed."

Wosmek came to Penn State from the University of South Carolina – Aiken where she was an assistant athletic trainer and worked with the school's 13 sports from August 2005 until June 2007. At USC-Aiken, she handled duties in the areas of athletic training, nutritional counseling, strength and conditioning and biomechanical analysis.

Prior to her time in South Carolina, Wosmek was a graduate assistant athletic trainer at the University of Minnesota from 2003 to 2005. Her primary sport coverage included women's rowing and men's and women's tennis.

Wosmek is a member of the National Athletic Trainers' Association (NATA) and completed the NATA Board of Certification in June of 2003. She graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree in athletic training from Minnesota State University – Mankato in 2003 with a minor in Corporate and Community Fitness and Wellness. Wosmek earned her Master's degree in Kinesiology from the University of Minnesota in May of 2005.

QUOTING RUSS ROSE

"Christa, at times last year, was as dominant a player as I saw in the country. I've felt since her freshman year that our prospects for success are based on her health and our ability to get her the ball. She is a dedicated team player, a great leader and certainly one of the top players in the country at her position. Her numbers were off the chart last year and I would expect another great year from her."

HARMOTTO'S EXPECTATIONS

"New team. New year. Same goal. We have set the bar high once again and I have my eyes set on winning the last match of my college career."

PERSONAL

Born Alisha Rebecca Glass on April 5, 1988 ... mother is Laurie Glass, who was also her high school volleyball coach ... grandfather Larry Glass was her high school basketball coach ... kinesiology major with a minor in Human Development & Family Studies ... names favorite book as "The Measure of a Man: The Spiritual Autobiography of Sidney Poitier," favorite movie as "Antwone Fisher," favorite entertainer as Christa Harmotto, favorite place to visit as Ibiza, Spain, a place she has never been to "but it looks fun!", favorite food as Quaker Peanut Butter Chocolate Chip Chewy Granola Bars, favorite actor as Morgan Freeman, favorite actress as Halle Berry and favorite pro sports team as the Detroit Pistons ... nickname is Leash or "Hey You!"

QUOTING RUSS ROSE

"As Alisha progressed last season and she got better and better, we as a team got better and better. She is one of the top young players in the country at the setting position and she continues to expand on the things that she can do offensively. Alisha is clearly one of the best blocking setters in the nation. She strives to make progress in her development as a player and as a team leader. Alisha is a fabulous team player and the thing that I recruited her on was her energy, her interaction skills and the things that I projected her being able to impact. I didn't know that she would become the force that she has as a blocker, and as she continues to develop and get a better feel for the nuances of the game and this team, she will continue to grow and make our team even better."

GLASS' EXPECTATIONS

"Set the bar even higher; don't settle for what happened in the past, exceed expectations; challenge ourselves to be better than we were yesterday; establish team cohesion unique to this season's team; start practices hungry, leave practices satisfied; come together, have fun, be crazy; understand the importance of details, every opponent, and every match; peak at the right time, end the season with a win."

QUOTING RUSS ROSE

"Megan went from being the National Freshman of the Year to the NCAA Championship Most Outstanding Player. It's easy to comment on someone who has made the impact that she has in her first two years, and recognize that she is a much better player than when she came to Penn State. We feel that she is going to continue to get better because she is always looking to improve her game. In my mind, she is one of the top outside hitters in the country, she has a great feel for the game and she is a confident, competitive and intelligent young lady."

HODGE'S EXPECTATIONS

"To be a better team than last year and defend our title."

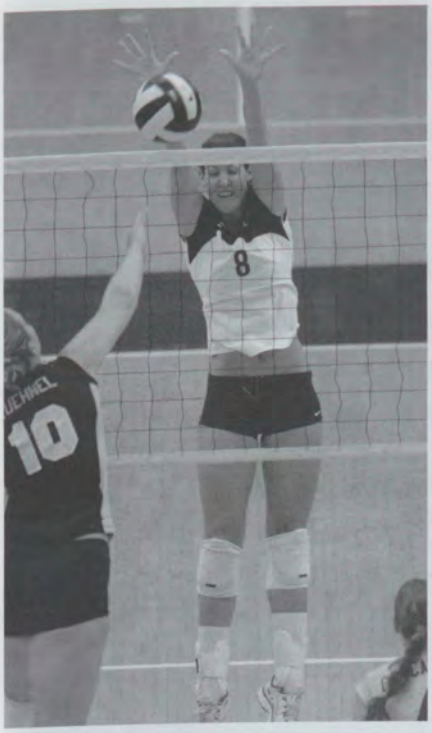
HIGH SCHOOL

Three year volleyball letterwinner and two year basketball letterwinner at State College Area High School ... volleyball team captain for the Little Lions during senior year ... aided the squad to two District 6 volleyball championships in 2004 and 2005 and also the 2004 District 6 basketball championship ... named Most Improved Player as a freshman ... won the Player's Choice Award as a sophomore ... named First Team All-State following junior season ... three-time First Team All-District and MAC First Team honoree ... earned the Maroon and Gray Award and the Power of the Paws Award ... member of the Pittsburgh Renaissance club volleyball program ... squad finished 15th in the 18 Open Division at the 2006 Junior Olympics.



PERSONAL

Born Kelsey Lynne Ream on Oct. 2, 1987 in State College, Pa. ... parents are Gary and Rebecca Ream ... has one sister, Lindsay (26) and one brother, Brandon (24) ... mother, father, sister and brother all attended Penn State ... brother Brandon played football for the Nittany Lions from 2002 to 2006 ... family owns Camp Woodward, a gymnastics, cheer, skateboard, BMX, inline and snowboard training facility ... majoring in Hotel, Restaurant and Institutional Management ... names hobbies as dancing, favorite musical entertainer as Rhianna, favorite pro sports team as the Miami Heat, favorite athlete as Gabby Reece, favorite food as Philly Cheesesteaks, favorite book as "The Notebook," favorite television show as "Grey's Anatomy," favorite movie as "Sex in the City," favorite actor as Mark Wahlberg, favorite actress as Gabrielle Union and favorite place to visit as Australia ... nickname is Reamster.

QUOTING RUSS ROSE

"Kelsey is a well-skilled player who last season was caught behind two All-Americans in Mel and Christa and a great young talent in Ari, and I think she was a little discouraged at times. She made terrific strides in the spring and working to get that fire back so that she becomes a person who we can depend on. Kelsey is calm under pressure and that is why last year it wasn't uncommon for me to put her in at key times to serve. She has a good serve and is a person who is willing to take a good swing at it. She will hopefully be able to make valuable contributions this season in various roles, as she is a good team player and is always smiling."

REAM'S EXPECTATIONS

"To make this season as memorable as the last season!"

PERSONAL

Born Jennifer Blair Brown on March 5, 1988 in Purcellville, Va. ... parents are Jeff and Jaima Brown ... has one brother, Tyler (24) ... majoring in English and political science ... hobbies are music, reading and movies, names "The DaVinci Code" as favorite book, "Sense and Sensibility" as favorite movie, the beach as favorite place to visit, mashed potatoes as favorite food, Harrison Ford as favorite actor and Kate Hudson as favorite actress ... nicknames are B, B-Bop, BB.

QUOTING RUSS ROSE

"Blair is one of our key performers. If she can play at a high level like she did last year, it allows us to compete with the top teams in the country because she is a huge blocker and she can attack from pin to pin. Blair has a live arm, a good feel for the game and we're hoping that following her ankle surgery, she will finally be at 100% and be back to doing the things that she was doing at the end of last season."

BROWN'S EXPECTATIONS

"To continue to improve every day as a team and to be there at the end."

I Love You," favorite actor as Denzel Washington, favorite actress as Kimberly Elise and favorite place to visit as the lakeshore and downtown Chicago ... nicknames are Arie, Miss Arielle and A-Train.

QUOTING RUSS ROSE

"One of the greatest strengths that we had last year is that we had Melissa (Walbridge) and we were able to bring Arie along a little slower, rather than having to throw her into matches before she was ready. Dennis (Hohenshelt) did a great job with Arie and her development as a young offensive player. She still has to improve her blocking but she is an exceptional offensive player. She's strong and she is an individual who likes to be in the mix. She is a very confident player even though she doesn't possess as much experience as others, and she will be a player who we will not only depend on this year but who will have major responsibilities in the future. She was the Big Ten Freshman of the Year last year despite not playing a full Big Ten season. That fact that she was recognized by the conference coaches certainly identifies that her efforts didn't go unnoticed."

WILSON'S EXPECTATIONS

"To win another national championship, of course, to improve my game, and to start and finish the season with a bang."

Born Kimberly Veronica Hohl on Sept. 8, 1988 in Hoffman Estates, Ill ... father is Dean Hohl ... has one sister, Stephanie (27) ... father was a national champion in speedskating ... majoring in Kinesiology ... names frisbee golf as hobby, Rascal Flatts as favorite musical entertainer, Psychology as favorite school subject, the Green Bay Packers as favorite pro sports team, Holly McPeak as favorite athlete, the "Harry Potter" series as favorite books, "The Office" and "CSI" as favorite television shows, "Pride & Prejudice" as favorite movie, Denzel Washington as favorite actor, Julia Roberts and Keira Knightley as favorite actresses and Italy and Greece as favorite places to visit.

QUOTING RUSS ROSE

"Kimi is a welcome addition to this year's team. I like her quickness, her fast release and how competitive she is. In looking to fill our opening at setter, I always came back to the fact that I loved the way she competed. I know that in talking with her previous coach, he kept highlighting the same thing: that she plays like a guy. I think that's a positive thing."

HOHL'S EXPECTATIONS

"To develop as a top setter and to help on and off the court to win another national championship."

QUOTING RUSS ROSE

"Cathy was a player who I recruited hard out of high school and club. She went to Boston College and was the libero for them last season, so I haven't seen her play in a year. But what I liked about her before was that she was quick, tough and she was confident in her ball-handling skills. I expect her to be ready to go, and I know that she'll always compete."

QUILICO'S EXPECTATIONS

"To grow as a volleyball player."

WHY I CHOSE PENN STATE

"I chose Penn State because of its academic reputation, the beautiful campus, the great coaching staff, the rich tradition of being a Nittany Lion, and I loved the team."

QUOTING RUSS ROSE

"Katie is a skilled player with good size, whose greatest strength right now is her ability to communicate and be a good team player. As she gets stronger and understands the demands and speed of the college game, things will change. In her first year, I look at Katie as someone who can contribute on either the right or the left side or be put in as a primary passer. It is my plan to give her experience playing this year at both positions and know that she can score from either pin."

WHY I CHOSE PENN STATE

"I fell in love with the campus years ago with I first visited. I love the atmosphere and have been a Penn State sports fan my entire life."

QUOTING RUSS ROSE

"Megan is the sleeper of this incoming class. She is quick and may end up being our fastest player on pursuit. I like the fact that she is a confident, high-energy individual who is very similar to her mother, who I coached a number of years ago. I don't know what role or position she's going to be in, but I know she's going to be in the back row and I'm optimistic that she is going to get some playing time her freshman year as she has a great nose for the ball."

SHIFFLETT'S EXPECTATIONS

WHY I CHOSE PENN STATE

"Penn State has always been a college choice of mine. Every time I would visit another school, I would somehow always compare it to Penn State and it would always fall short. I chose to play volleyball at Penn State because they have a wonderful coaching staff who are full of knowledge, energy and a focus on team. I also wanted to be surrounded with a group of people who have the same mindset as I do: play to win."

QUOTING RUSS ROSE

"We have worked with Heather at our camps over the years. She is exceptionally strong and works hard. I think she will be a player who will always bring good energy and have a great attitude every day. She will need to adjust to the speed and intensity of the game, but that is the same for all young players."

TICE'S EXPECTATIONS

"One of my personal goals is to work hard at everything I do for the team and myself. I will push myself to the fullest in order to reach my full potential for the team. If I strive for 110% and I fall short, I am still close to 100%. I feel my strengths are determination, communication and drive. As a team, the goal for the future is to get another national title!"

Nittany Lions By Month

Penn State is 26-4 (.867) all-time during the month of August. Its first two losses came during the inaugural NACWAA in 1995 when Nebraska swept the Lions, and in the 1999 NACWAA when Florida outlasted Penn State 3-2 in the opening round. The Lions fell to UCLA in the first round of the NACWAA in 2000 and fell to defending national champion Stanford in the first round of the AVCA/NACWAA Showcase in 2005, hosted by the Qwest Center in Omaha, Neb.

Penn State is 312-49-4 (.860) all-time during the month of September. Amazingly, the Lions are 136-10 during September dating back to the 1995 season and 51-4 (.927) over the last five years.

The Lions are 344-64 (.843) all-time during the month of October. Penn State has posted a 79-14 (.878) mark in October over the last 10 seasons and 32-3 (.943) in the last four years.

Penn State is 245-54 (.819) all-time during the month of November, including a 95-8 (.922) mark over the last 10 seasons. The Lions had a six-year streak from 1995-2000 where they did not lose a match in the month, and over the last five seasons, Penn State has a 41-1 (.976) mark in November.

Quick Sets

• During a period from Oct. 16, 1996 to Nov. 9, 2001, Penn State had won 139 consecutive matches when taking a 2-0 lead. Since joining the Big Ten for the 1991 season, Penn State has played in 585 total matches, winning 515. Amazingly, 410 of those 515 wins, or 80%, have been three-game sweeps. Over the last four years, Penn State has won 102 of its 126 victories in three games (81%), including 26 out of 34 (76%) in 2007.

• Over the last 12 years, the Lions have lost only 45 matches. And of those 17 teams that defeated the Lions – Brigham Young, Florida, Illinois, Long Beach State, Michigan, Michigan State, Minnesota, Nebraska, Northwestern, Ohio State, USC, Stanford, Temple, Tennessee, UCLA, Washington and Wisconsin – only seven of these teams (Nebraska, Stanford, Ohio State, Wisconsin, UCLA, Minnesota, Florida and Michigan State) have been able to beat Penn State a third time. The Lions have compiled a 164-45 (78%) mark in the last 12 years versus these teams.

vs. Michigan 23-2	vs. Stanford 5-4
vs. Northwestern 22-2	vs. Michigan State 21-3
vs. Wisconsin 19-6	vs. Ohio State 19-6
vs. Florida 2-3	vs. UCLA 2-3
vs. Nebraska 2-3	vs. Minnesota 20-5
vs. Long Beach State 0-1	vs. Southern California 1-1
vs. Illinois 23-2	vs. Temple 0-1
vs. Brigham Young 5-1	vs. Tennessee 0-1
vs. Washington 0-1

Since joining the Big Ten Conference for the 1991 season, Penn State has racked up an impressive 297-43 (.874) record in league matches – the best mark of any Big Ten team over that 17-year span.

• The Big Ten Conference was among the top in the nation with six teams included in the 2007 NCAA Championship bracket, which tied the Pac-10 and the Big 12 for the largest conference representation in the championship. 2007 marked the 13th time in conference history that the Big Ten had six or more teams selected to the NCAA Championship. The conference sent a record eight teams to the NCAAs in 1999 and 2002, boasted seven NCAA participants in 1995, 2003, 2004 and 2006, and sent six squads in 1994, 1997, 1998, 2000, 2001, 2005 and 2007. In the 27-year history of the event, the Big Ten has had five or more teams selected to the bracket on 17 occasions. The Big Ten holds an overall NCAA Championship record of 202-122 (.623) dating back to 1983, and in 2007 tallied a record of 12-5.

• The Big Ten's .706 winning percentage in the 2007 NCAA Championship bested the conference's previous record of .700, set in 2000. The conference has boasted a combined winning percentage of .600 or higher in 13 of the last 16 years and a .500 or better record in each for the last 17 tournaments.

2008 OPPONENTS

• The Big Ten has recorded 10 or more wins in the last five NCAA Championships, including 2007, finishing with a 12-5 record. Overall, Big Ten squads have combined for 10 or more NCAA wins on 10 occasions, including each of the last five seasons.

• Including 2007, six different Big Ten schools have combined to reach the national semifinals 14 times, including three schools making six total appearances in the championship game. Of the six squads selected to the 2007 bracket, four (Michigan State, Minnesota, Penn State, Wisconsin) have combined to reach the national semifinals on nine occasions with six championship game appearances.

• The Penn State/Michigan matchup in the 2007 NCAA Regional semifinal marked the 12th occasion in which two Big Ten teams faced each other in NCAA Championship play. Of the nine teams that have been presented with the matchup over the years, Penn State holds the best record of intraconference NCAA play at 5-1, followed by Illinois (2-1), Wisconsin (2-1), Minnesota (1-1), Ohio State (2-4), Iowa (0-1), Michigan (0-1), Michigan State (0-1) and Purdue (0-1).

• Four Big Ten volleyball teams finished ranked in the top 25 of the CSTV/AVCA Coaches Poll. Penn State led the Big Ten contingent at No. 1, followed by No. 14 Wisconsin, No. 19 Michigan and No. 20 Michigan State. Purdue ended the year receiving votes in the poll.

• Five Big Ten student-athletes earned NCAA Regional All-Tournament honors in 2007. In the University Park Region, Penn State's Nicole Fawcett and Christa Harmotto were honored as Nittany Lion Arielle Wilson took home Most Outstanding Player accolades. In the Madison Regional, Michigan State's Katie Johnson and Ashley Schatzle were recognized.

• Seven league schools placed among the Top 25 in the country in volleyball attendance in 2007. Wisconsin ranked third with an average of 5,050, Minnesota sat fourth with an average of 3,316, Penn State ranked fifth with an average of 2,832, Purdue was 12th with an average of 2,075, Indiana ranked 23rd with an average of 1,555, Michigan State sat 24th with an average of 1,546 and Ohio State ranked 25th with an average of 1,532.

• The Big Ten placed five teams in the top 30 of the NCAA's final RPI report, led by top-10 teams No. 2 Penn State and No. 6 Wisconsin. The Nittany Lions and Badgers were followed by No. 20 Purdue, No. 21 Michigan and No. 29 Michigan State. With five teams in the top 30, the Big Ten tied with the Pac-10 for the largest representation by any conference.

• The Big Ten produced two American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) National Players of the Week during the 2007 season. Penn State's Megan Hodge earned the first honor of her career on Sept. 10 while teammate Alisha Glass picked up her second career award on Nov. 19.

• Eleven Big Ten players earned AVCA All-America honors for the 2007 season, including First Team selections Nicole Fawcett, Christa Harmotto and Megan Hodge of Penn State. Nittany Lion setter Alisha Glass and Wisconsin sophomore Brittney Dolgner were named to the Second Team, while Badger senior Taylor Reineke and MIchigan State's Ashley Schatzle earned spots on the Third Team. Michigan's Katie Bruzdzinski and Lexi Zimmerman, Purdue's Stephanie Lynch and Wisconsin's Jackie Simpson earned Honorable Mention recognition. Seven of the 11 players will be returning to their respective teams for the 2008 season.

• Since the NCAA started sponsoring volleyball in 1981, only two teams in the country have appeared in all 27 tournaments. Penn State joins Stanford as the elite programs to accomplish the feat. The Nittany Lions have compiled an overall record of 54-25 (.684) in the NCAA Tournament, including 11 trips to the NCAA Regional Final, six trips to the NCAA Semifinals (1993, 1994, 1997, 1998, 1999, 2007) and two national championships (1999, 2007).

• Eight Big Ten student-athletes were named ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District, the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA) announced. Penn State's Christa Harmotto (First Team) and Melissa Walbridge (Second Team) were honored, along with Ohio State's Danielle Meyer (First Team), Michigan's Stesha Selsky (Third Team) while Wisconsin's Taylor Reineke and Jocelyn Wack and Purdue's Danita Merlau and Iowa's Emily Hiza were all named Second Team. Meyer went on to earn First Team Academic All-America honors while Harmotto garnered Third Team recognition.

THIS IS THE BIG TEN CONFERENCE

The Big Ten Conference is a union of 11 world-class academic institutions who share a common mission of research, graduate, professional and undergraduate teaching and public service. The conference's 100-plus years of history, strong tradition of competitive intercollegiate athletic programs, vast and passionate alumni base, and consistent leadership in innovations position the Big Ten and its entire community firmly on the Big Stage.

The Big Ten has sustained a comprehensive set of shared practices and policies that enforce the priority of academics and emphasize the values of integrity, fairness and competitiveness in all aspects of its student-athletes' lives, with the ultimate goal of ensuring that each individual have the opportunity to live a Big Life.

STUDENT-ATHLETE OPPORTUNITIES

- Big Ten universities provide approximately $100 million in direct financial aid to more than 8,500 men and women student-athletes who compete for 25 championships, 12 for men and 13 for women.
- Conference institutions sponsor broad-based athletic programs with more than 270 teams. Other than the Ivy League, the Big Ten has the most broad-based athletic programs in the United States.

TOP ACADEMIC INSTITUTIONS

- Big Ten universities are members of the nation's only conference whose constituency is entirely composed of institutions that are members of the AAU, a prestigious association of major academic and research institutions in the United States and Canada.
- Big Ten institutions house on their campuses 10 of the nation's 35 largest academic libraries. Collectively, conference libraries hold more than 70 million book volumes, and institutions work collaboratively to build and share their resources with other Big Ten members.

LEADERSHIP IN GENDER EQUITY

- Since 1992, the Big Ten has shown a strong commitment to increasing opportunities for women in sports and exposure of women's athletics by establishing a multi-phased gender equity program. In that time, the Big Ten has created in excess of 2,000 new opportunities for women student-athletes and established 28 new women's teams, while expanding the number of women's championships to 13 by adding field hockey, soccer and rowing.
- As part of the gender equity action plan, the Big Ten was the first conference to voluntarily adopt male/female participation goals for student-athletes in 1992. The Big Ten initiated a five-year plan for conference members to commit to a 60 percent/40 percent male-to-female student-athlete participation ratio. This was achieved as a conference by 1997 and 2000 was the first year that all institutions individually met this goal. As part of its commitment to gender equity, the Council of Presidents/Chancellors annually monitors this policy. Over the past five years, the Big Ten has maintained on average a 53 percent/47 percent male-to-female participation ratio.
- According to the National Association of Collegiate Women's Athletics Administrators (NACWAA), the Big Ten is one of only two conferences in the nation in which women account for over 50 percent of the head coaching positions and 60 percent of the assistant coaching ranks in women's sports.

BUILDING THE FUTURE

- In 1989, the Big Ten created a community outreach program - SCORE (Success Comes Out of Reading Everyday), which partnered the conference with two Chicago elementary schools to improve reading performances. What began with one school, two grade levels and five classrooms has grown in its 19th year to include grades kindergarten through eighth, encompassing all classes and students at Melody School and Louis Armstrong School.
- Following the national tragedy on Sept. 11, 2001, the Big Ten, through its intercollegiate athletic department revenues, pledged a $1 million scholarship contribution to assist the families of those affected by the terrorist attacks. The conference's donation is called the "Big Ten 9-11 Scholarship Fund", and the $1 million contribution will be drawn from conference reserves which are generated as a result of football and men's basketball participation in NCAA, bowl and regular-season television opportunities.
- The Big Ten has established numerous community programs surrounding the Big Ten Men's and Women's Basketball Tournaments, including the Wayne Duke Postgraduate Award Scholarship, the Big Ten Career Fair and the Shoot for the Cure event during the women's tournament that raised over $10,000 for the Indianapolis Affiliate of Susan G. Komen for the Cure in its first year.

REC HALL HOSTS THE 2008 NCAA REGIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP

MEN'S GYMNASTICS 2004 NCAA CHAMPIONS
MEN'S GYMNASTICS 1965 NCAA CHAMPIONS
MEN'S GYMNASTICS 1960 NCAA CHAMPIONS
PENN STATE UNIVERSITY

For the second consecutive year, Penn State University and Rec Hall have been chosen as one of four host sites for the 2008 NCAA Women's Volleyball Regional Championship, to be held Dec. 12-13, 2008. Penn State joins Moby Arena and Colorado State University Gregory Gymnasium and the University of Texas and the Bank of America Arena and the University of Washington as the four pre-determined sites. The Qwest Center in Omaha, Neb., will be the site of the 2008 NCAA National Championship semifinals and final on Dec. 18 and 20.

"When we were selecting these sites we really wanted to focus on attendance history and attendance potential," said Marie Robbins, chair of the NCAA Division I Women's Volleyball Committee. "We believe these sites provide a regional balance that can also draw great crowds. They have proven to be great hosts in the past and we know they will step up to the plate in hosting these regionals so we can continue to grow this championship."

The defending national champion Nittany Lions have hosted at least one round of the NCAA Tournament in 22 of the possible 28 years, including the last 19 consecutive seasons. Penn State has played 39 NCAA matches at Rec Hall since 1981, boasting a 36-3 record in those contests. The Nittany Lions and Rec Hall have hosted the Regional Championship in 2007, 2005, 1999, 1998 and 1997.

"Penn State is very honored to be chosen for the second consecutive year to host the NCAA Women's Volleyball Regionals," said Tim Curley, Penn State Director of Athletics. "As is evidenced by two national championships this year in volleyball, Penn State has a very strong tradition of excellence in the sport and we are very excited to showcase this once again. Our staff knows what it takes to run a high-caliber event for both the student-athletes and the fans, and I have the greatest confidence that Penn State will again put on a great event that will highlight the outstanding level of volleyball that I know will be played."

Penn State is one of only two teams – with the other being Stanford – to participate in all 27 NCAA Tournaments since its inception in 1981. The Nittany Lions hold a 54-25 all-time NCAA Tournament record, including six trips to the NCAA National Semifinals and two National Championships (1999, 2007). Penn State also became only the second school in NCAA history (joining Stanford in 1996-97) to have its women's and men's team capture a volleyball National Championship in the same academic year as the Nittany Lion men defeated Pepperdine on May 3 for their title.

"We're very appreciative that the University again put in a bid to host this tournament," said head coach Russ Rose, the 2007 AVCA National Coach of the Year. "We hope to continue to have the great following and support from the fans that we did last year during the regular season and throughout the NCAA Championship."

2007 NCAA NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

LIONS RALLY TO DEFEAT STANFORD, 3-2, CAPTURE SECOND NCAA NATIONAL TITLE

SACRAMENTO, Calif., Dec. 15, 2007 - The No. 1 Penn State women's volleyball team captured the program's second NCAA Championship, winning a dramatic five-game final, 3-2, against No. 4 Stanford in Arco Arena.

The Nittany Lions won the thriller, 30-25, 30-26, 23-20, 19-30, 15-8, posting their 26th consecutive victory since a five-game loss to the Cardinal exactly three months prior. Penn State finished the season with a superlative 34-2 record, bringing the championship trophy back to Happy Valley to join the program's 1999 crown.

"We're awfully excited," stated Russ Rose, the 2007 AVCA National Coach of the Year and Hall of Fame inductee earlier in the week. "We're thrilled for our fans and everyone that cares about Penn State."

"It's an amazing feeling," said junior outside hitter Nicole Fawcett (Zanesfield, Ohio). "This year's team was so determined. After the fourth game we were determined to get our focus back."

After taking a 2-0 lead, Penn State saw the top-seeded Stanford rally to tie the match, 2-2. The Cardinal took a 4-3 lead in the decisive Game 5, but the Nittany Lions scored seven consecutive points to take control at 10-4. Junior middle hitter Christa Harmotto (Aliquippa, Pa.) and sophomore setter Alisha Glass (Leland, Mich.) each had two kills during the critical run.

Kills by Fawcett and freshman middle hitter Arielle Wilson (Broadview, Ill.) pushed Penn State's lead to 13-7. A block by Wilson and freshman opposite Blair Brown (Purcellville, Va.) made it 14-8. The Nittany Lions immediately seized the opportunity on their first match point, as sophomore outside hitter Megan Hodge (Durham, N.C.) delivered her 26th kill of the match, setting off jubilation among the Nittany Lions.

Penn State won Game 1, 30-25. Stanford led 15-13, but the Nittany Lions scored five consecutive points to take a 18-15 lead. The game was tied at 22-22, but Penn State took the lead for good on a service error by the Cardinal and a kill by Harmotto. A block by Fawcett made it 29-24 and she delivered the game-winning kill for the 30-25 margin. Penn State hit .263 in the opening game and Stanford hit .159.

The Nittany Lions captured Game 2, 30-26. Penn State took the lead for good on a Fawcett kill to make it 13-12. Another Fawcett kill made it 29-25 and a block by Glass and Harmotto gave the Lions the 30-26 win and a 2-0 lead. Penn State hit .525 in the game, while the Cardinal hit .357.

Stanford won Game 3, 30-23, snapping a streak of 17 consecutive winning games for the Nittany Lions in the 2007 NCAA Tournament. Penn State took its last lead at 7-6 on a block by freshman middle hitter Arielle Wilson, but the Cardinal took the lead for good at 9-8.

The Cardinal won Game 4, 30-19, to force the decisive fifth game.

The national championship match was the fifth in program history for the Nittany Lions, as they also advanced in 1993, 1997, 1998 and 1999, capturing the title in 1999. Penn State defeated Stanford (15-2, 15-10, 15-7) on Dec. 18, 1999 in Honolulu, Hawaii, to give the Lions their first NCAA Championship.

The two teams met earlier in 2007 in New Haven, Conn., with Stanford outlasting Penn State in five games (30-23, 23-30, 27-30, 30-28, 15-9) on Sept. 15. The Nittany Lions had won 25 consecutive matches since the loss entering the title match, including a 20-0 record in winning a fifth consecutive Big Ten Championship.

The NCAA Championship match featured eight 2007 AVCA All-Americans, including first teamers Fawcett, Hodge and Harmotto for Penn State and Bryn Kehoe, Foluke Akinradewo and Cynthia Barboza for Stanford. Penn State's Glass and Stanford's Alix Klineman both earned second team honors.

Stanford was playing less than 120 miles from Arco Arena, while the Nittany Lions traveled more than 2,300 miles to capture the program's second NCAA Championship.

2007 NCAA NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

Sophomore outside hitter Megan Hodge became Penn State's fourth National Championship Most Outstanding Player, joining Terri Zemaitis in 1997 and Lauren Cacciamani in 1998 and 1999.

2007 marked the first time in Penn State history that four Nittany Lion players were named to the NCAA Championship All-Tournament Team (Megan Hodge, Alisha Glass, Christa Harmotto, Nicole Fawcett).

Christa Harmotto just missed claiming the NCAA Tournament hitting percentage record (.564), attacking at a .548 clip with 3.00 kills per game through 20 games. Freshman Arielle Wilson fell just shy of the record as well with 68 total attacks (minimum for the record is 75), hitting .618 with 2.56 kills per game in 18 games.

Penn State tied the NCAA record for service aces in an NCAA Tournament with 43 in six matches, equaling the 1998 Long Beach State team, who defeated Penn State for the national title that year.

Nicole Fawcett recorded 19 kills and had two service aces in the NCAA Championship match against Stanford, a day before her 21st birthday.

Penn State shattered the NCAA Tournament record for team hitting percentage, besting the previous mark of .369 set by the 1995 Long Beach State team. The 2007 Nittany Lions attacked at a combined .424 clip while averaging 16.75 kills per game through six matches.

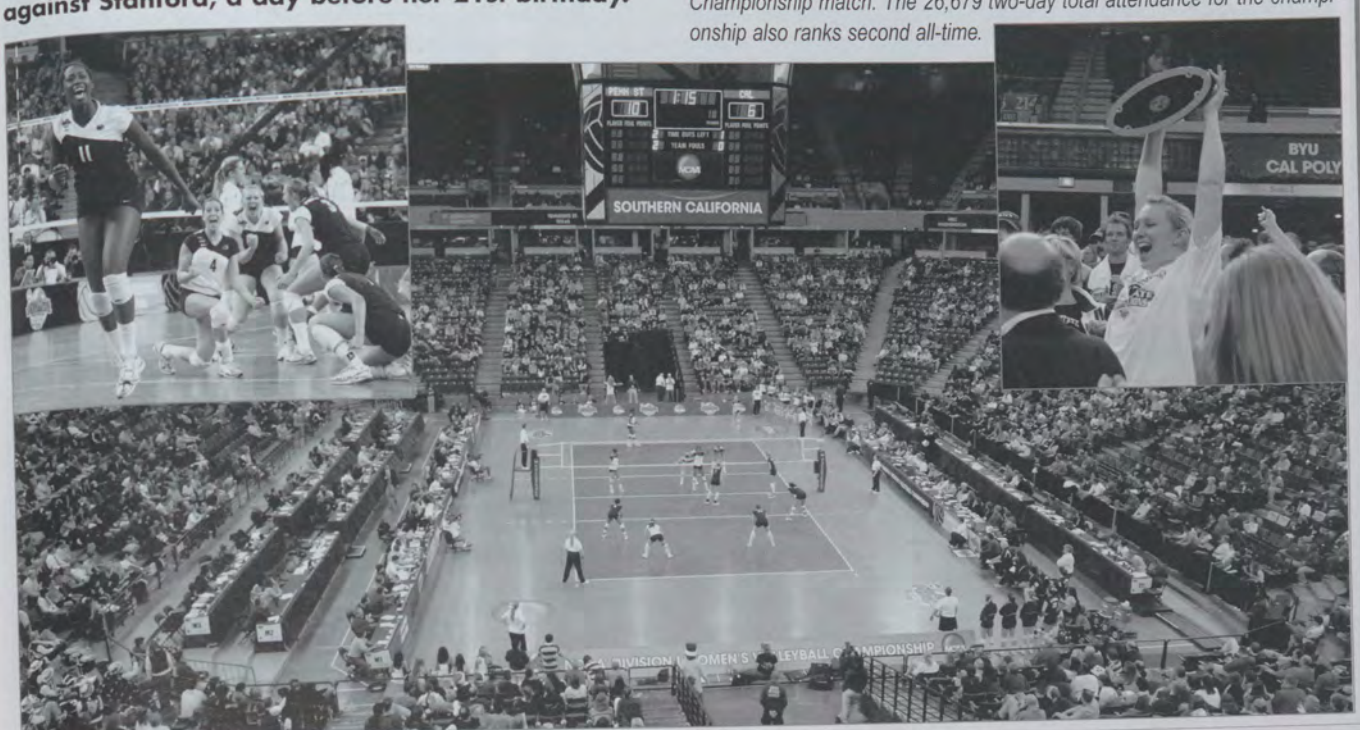
Megan Hodge recorded a season-high 26 kills in the NCAA Championship match against Stanford.

Since the NCAA Championship expanded to 64 teams in 1998, the team who was ranked No. 1 in the final regular-season AVCA poll has captured the national championship seven times.

Alisha Glass dished out a match-high 65 assists, just shy of her career high of 69 assists, set in the first meeting with Stanford on Sept. 15, 2007, in New Haven, Conn.

Roberta Holehouse led all players with 17 digs, her 56th double-digit dig match over the last two seasons.

The championship match was witnessed by 13,631 fans at Arco Arena, the second largest crowd ever to witness an NCAA Women's Volleyball Championship match. The 26,679 two-day total attendance for the championship also ranks second all-time.



NCAA CHAMPIONSHIP QUOTES

Opening Statement: Russ Rose (Head Coach)
"Well I thought the match had a couple of different matches in there. I thought the first couple of games had a pretty even level of play. I don't think it was the best level that either team could play but we gritted it out and played hard enough to get those two games. In the next couple of games, as you would expect from a great team like Stanford, they kept fighting and we ran into a few passing problems and had some challenges along the way, and I thought we lost our composure a little bit in the fourth game. But we hit .368 and lost and they hit .535 and had no hitting errors in the fourth game, so it doesn't really make a difference who's on the other side of the net when somebody hits .535. Going into the fifth game I felt we didn't have the momentum, but there was no reason to think we didn't have a chance, and that's what I said. I thought we took control, we had a few touches and it's all about converting at that time and I thought we did a good job of that. Alisha had two or three kills and we played hard at the time we needed to play hard. Certainly the people that are up here tonight did a great job at some of the skills that we count on them to do. That's why they work hard. That was the goal. The goal was to be the national champion and that's what we talked about and that's what we tried to do in putting this team together. To compete at the highest level. We won the match, we won the national championship and talk to the players, they're the ones that did it."

On the difference in the team now from the loss to Stanford in September
"Earlier in the year it was Arie (Wilson's) first match that she started. We were up 2-1 and had opportunities in the fourth game to win the match. This evening we scored two points more than the other team in total points so it was really a situation where, with rally scoring, there are ebbs and flows and you have to try to keep your head about you when things are going bad. We didn't relax when we were up 2-0. You don't get here by having that as one of your traits. And Stanford being down 0-2, they wouldn't get here having a trait like that where they would give up. So when things were going bad we knew we still had a fifth game. We train hard and we believe that we have an opportunity against everyone we play. We play in a great conference where we play back-to-back nights against great teams and good crowds, so I don't think the crowd was a factor. The opportunity was out there and we seized it."

On the rotation matchup in Game 5
"Christa in the left front is good for us. I thought even in the fourth game where we were struggling to hit .380, they couldn't stop her. So I wanted to go with that. One of our plans was to recognize the fact that Foluke is a great offensive player and we didn't have any interest in saying 'let's think about stopping her.' She could hit a kill every time but the goal is to win a national championship. That's not to say we ignored her. We put two people on her on good passes in some situations, but in a short game I think you want to feel comfortable with what you're doing. I thought we had all the opportunities to sub the people we wanted and I think we just got good touches. We had some conversion opportunities and we got those. We could have picked a certain lineup that might not have worked and tonight it worked. When we played Stanford last time we hit negative in the fifth game and tonight they hit negative in the fifth game. So that might be just the difference that comes right out at me."

On the match being a virtual home game for Stanford, and on Penn State representing the rest of the country
"I don't want to comment about the Pac-10 because I'm not an expert about the Pac-10 and I don't feel I'm an expert on the Big Ten. There are a lot of great teams and a lot of great players and great coaches around the country. There are a lot of people that maybe don't feel that way, but I feel that way. I coach Penn State and I care about Penn State and if Penn State's not in it I care about other Big Ten teams because I'm a loyal guy."

On the decision not to redshirt Arielle Wilson
"It sure makes me look like I was an idiot considering it right? I mean she hit what, .500, .600, .900 in one of the matches in the playoffs? But those things happen because other people allow it to happen. The staff works hard, the passing is good, Alisha continues to develop. And as Arielle said last weekend when she was MVP of the Regional, 'I just hit over them.' That sums it up. She gets up, likes to hit and that's the beauty of what she does. She needs to learn a lot of other things about the game. But the rally score game is still a strange animal to me. We had conversations as a staff about it. We had the same questions last year because I redshirted Blair Brown when she was my best blocker and we needed blocking at that position. And I think that'll prove to be a good decision. But Arielle plays great. She's fresh. I'm not surprised about any of the things she's doing and I hope she continues to get better. It proves to be a very good decision. When we were discussing it, I was going home and my 12-year old son told me 'you can't redshirt her,' so he broke the tie I guess."

Alisha Glass (Sophomore Setter)
On the efficiency of the passers throughout the tournament
"If you look at our team, when we do pass well we're hard to stop. And the times when we were strong was when we were passing. When the team is passing well it's fun to watch and it's fun to run the offense and mix things up a little bit. I think we had some streaks where we did struggle with passing a little bit but all in all I think we did pass well, and that gives you the ability to do whatever you want as a setter."

On what the mood of the team was like before Game 5
"We didn't really want to look at the momentum. We just wanted to start from the beginning of game 5. We came into this match wanting to win a national championship and in between those games we just said 'look, we're here, we got here, this is our goal and who says we're not going to come out and be strong.' We did and we won so I think it was a collective effort from everyone; our bench, our fans everyone understood that we wanted to get it done and it was nice that we could."

Megan Hodge (Sophomore Outside Hitter)
On the feeling of winning the Championship and being named MVP
"As far as the award, that doesn't matter. We got here as a team so all of the awards are nice but that's not what it's about. At this moment, I guess it hasn't really sunk in yet that we won. It's just kind of a surreal feeling - it's great, I'm on a high I guess. It's great."

On the strong hitting and serving which both set tournament records
"I think that's something we definitely stress in practice every day. Serving- we go through plenty of reps serving and coach always talks to us about how our hitting percentage needs to be high because that's how you win. So I think that's just what we've focused on and that's what's gotten us to this point."

Christa Harmotto (Junior Middle Hitter)
On the difference from Game 4 to Game 5
"You can never really predict what lineup you're going to be against. We knew on a good pass they were going to try to run middle, especially since Foluke was in the front row. So I think we did a good job as far as talking to our blockers in the front row, and I think our defense really picked up as far as making some great defensive plays and we were able to get some strength from that."

2007 NCAA NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

➤ Arielle Wilson was a large factor in Penn State's title run. She was named the Most Outstanding Player of the NCAA University Park Regional Championship, and was very surprised by the honor.

➤ Christa Harmotto and Nicole Fawcett at the team banquet prior to the NCAA Semifinals.

➤ Melissa Walbridge does a one-on-one interview prior to the NCAA Semifinals.

➤ The Penn State team is a family, even spending Thanksgiving at Nicole Fawcett's grandma's house on the way to Michigan.

➤ After the team captured the NCAA National Championship, the team made several appearances, including signing autographs, being recognized during basketball and baseball games, and even throwing out the first pitch at a Big Ten softball game.

➤ Melissa Walbridge and Adam Hughes soak in the title atmosphere.

➤ Kate Price enjoys her time with the National Championship trophy.

➤ The University hosted a gathering for the team and head coach Russ Rose.

➤ Penn State President Dr. Graham Spanier and Director of Athletics Tim Curley, both avid volleyball fans, spoke to the team and assembled crowd at the gathering to honor the squad.

A VISIT TO THE WHITE HOUSE

As another perk to winning their respective NCAA National Championships, the 2007 Penn State women's volleyball team and the 2008 Penn State men's volleyball team were invited to the White House to meet with President George W. Bush on Tuesday, June 24, 2008. Both squads enjoyed a tour of the East Wing of the White House before individually meeting with the President. He chatted with each group, asking about the season and their championship, where the student-athletes were from and what they planned to do in the future. The team captains then presented the President with a gift - a jointly-signed Penn State No. 1 volleyball jersey and a red, white and blue volleyball - before taking a group photo. The teams were then escorted to the Blue Room of the White House before being formally announced to the South Lawn, where they descended the stairs to a reserved seating area. The captains of each of the 18 National Championship teams in attendance were then escorted to a stage in front of the group and the President joined them, speaking to the crowd and recognizing each team for their feats.

Penn State Claims 11th Overall and Fifth Straight Big Ten Title

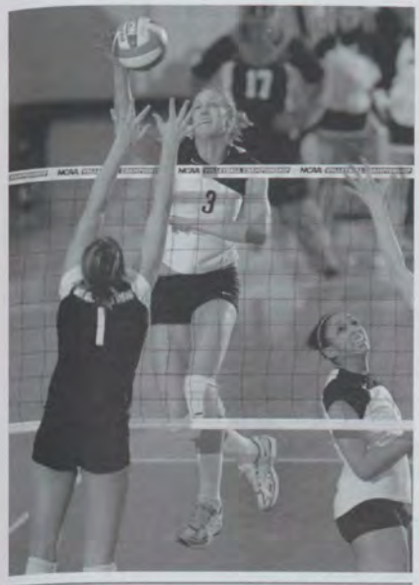
With its 34-2 record for the 2007 season - including a 20-0 Big Ten mark, Penn State advanced to its 27th consecutive NCAA Tournament and captured its second national title. The Nittany Lions defeated Siena, Albany, Michigan and Brigham Young all at home before traveling to defeat California and Stanford at ARCO Arena in Sacramento, Calif. Penn State has an NCAA Tournament record of 54-25, including a 36-3 mark at Rec Hall.

Rewriting The Record Books

Penn State accomplished something in 2007 that no other team in the history of Big Ten women's volleyball had done - for the second consecutive year. In 2006, the Nittany Lions clinched their fourth consecutive outright title which is unprecedented in the conference in volleyball. Penn State also captured four consecutive conference titles from 1996-99 but shared the 1996 crown with Michigan State and 1997 title with Wisconsin. The only other program to win more than two consecutive league titles was Illinois, whose 1986-88 teams captured three solo titles.

In 2007, with the wins over No. 9 Wisconsin and Illinois on Nov. 16-17, Penn State captured its fifth consecutive outright Big Ten title, the first time in league history that one team has claimed five titles in a row, outright or shared.

The women's volleyball squad has won 11 Big Ten titles (1992, 1993, 1996, 1997, 1998, 1999, 2003, 2004, 2005, 2006 and 2007) in the 17 years since joining the league for the 1991 season, securing that every senior class at Penn State since 1992 has claimed at least one conference championship. The Nittany Lions boast an astounding 93-7 Big Ten record in their last five championship seasons and Penn State holds an overall conference record of 297-43, including a 158-12 mark at Rec Hall. The Nittany Lions have currently won their last 25 Big Ten matches dating back to the 2006 season.



➤ Christa Harmotto earned AVCA First Team All-America honors and was also the Big Ten Player of the Year in 2007.

Three AVCA All-Americans

Four Nittany Lions were named All-Americans by the AVCA (American Volleyball Coaches Association). Nicole Fawcett, Christa Harmotto and Megan Hodge all picked up first team honors and Alisha Glass earned second team accolades.

Penn State is one of only two schools with three First Team AVCA All-America and four overall selections, as Stanford also earned three First Team selections and one Second Team honor.

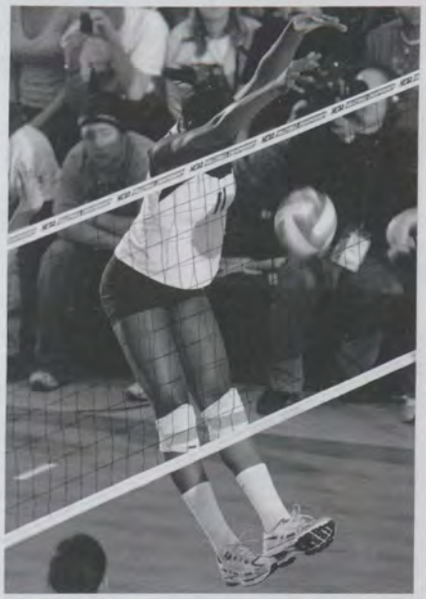
The four selections bring Penn State's total number of All-America selections to 52 since 1979 and head coach Russ Rose has now coached at least one All-America selection in 28 of his 29 seasons at Penn State.

➤ Nicole Fawcett earned AVCA First Team All-America honors for the second straight year, and was also First Team All-Big Ten.

Rose Earns COY Honors

Head coach Russ Rose was named both the AVCA National and Big Ten Coach of the Year in 2007. The national award was the third of the career, as he was also honored in 1997 and 1999 and his Big Ten recognition was his ninth, also picking up the award in 1992, 1993, 1996, 1997, 1998, 2003, 2005 and 2006.

Holding a career record of 925-159 in his 29 seasons for a nation-leading winning percentage of .853, Rose guided the Nittany Lions to their 11th Big Ten title in 17 seasons since joining the Big Ten in 1991, and the team became the seventh squad since double-round robin play began in 1985 to finish the Big Ten schedule with an undefeated 20-0 league record. He has led his teams to 27 consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances, one of only two schools to appear in every postseason event, while collecting his 19th conference title this season after winning eight straight Atlantic 10 titles from 1983-1990. He has coached at least one All-American in 28 of his 29 seasons, including 17 conference Players of the Year in the last 23 years



➤ Megan Hodge was named the NCAA Championship Most Outstanding Player and AVCA First Team All-America in 2007.

Wilson Racks Up FOY, MOP Awards

Freshman middle hitter Arielle Wilson started her first career match on Sept. 15 against Stanford, and she came a long way in three months. Wilson was named the Big Ten Freshman of the Year - Penn State's sixth straight conference rookie of the year accolade - after becoming the third-ever to lead the Big Ten in blocking, owning a 1.80 blocks per game average, including a 1.78 bpg mark in league matches. On the list of newcomers honored, Wilson joins Megan Hodge (2005), Nicole Fawcett (2005), Kate Price (2004), Cassy Salyer (2003), Sam Tortorello (2002) and Bonnie Bremner (1996).

Wilson also earned NCAA University Park Regional Most Outstanding Player honors after averaging 2.83 kills per game on .615 hitting with 13 total blocks in two matches (six games) against Michigan and Brigham Young. When asked how her hitting percentage was so high through the two contests, she responded with "I could just hit over everybody, so I did. Why not keep at it? That was the game plan."

Harmotto Named Big Ten POY

Junior middle hitter Christa Harmotto was named the Big Ten Player of the Year, Penn State's third consecutive honor for the league's top performer. Megan Hodge earned the recognition in 2006 and Sam Tortorello picked up the honor in 2005.

Harmotto smashed the conference record for hitting percentage with a .492 average in all games played. The mark bests the previous high of .455 set by Illinois' Mary Eggers in 1986.

30 Isn't So Bad

With the NCAA Championship Second Round win over Albany on Dec. 1, Penn State claimed its 30th win of the season, the 20th time the Nittany Lions have done so under head coach Russ Rose, including the third consecutive season. The Penn State record for wins in a season is 44, which both the 1981 and 1990 squads accomplished.

2007 HIGHLIGHTS

2007 Division I Women's Volleyball Championship

All-Big Ten Honors

Juniors Nicole Fawcett and Christa Harmotto and sophomores Alisha Glass and Megan Hodge were all named First Team All-Big Ten. The Nittany Lions' four All-Big Ten honors bring Penn State's total number of All-Big Ten selections to 68 since joining the league for the 1991 season. It is the third career All-Big Ten honor for Fawcett and Harmotto, the second for Hodge and the first for Glass.

Freshmen Blair Brown and Arielle Wilson were also two of six players named to the 2007 Big Ten All-Freshmen team, the Lions' 10th and 11th members of the squad since it began in 1999.

Fawcett, Hodge Hit 1,000

Two Lions surpassed the 1,000 career kill mark during the 2007 season. Nicole Fawcett became the 18th player in Penn State history to reach the mark with her 21st put-away against then-No. 4 Texas in the season-opener on Aug. 24. Megan Hodge added herself to the list later in the season with her 25 kills at Michigan on Nov. 24. Fawcett enters the 2008 season with 1,512 career kills and Hodge has 1,112. Christa Harmotto is also making her way up the list, having 969 going into her final season.

In The NCAAs

The Nittany Lions have quite a history in the NCAA Championship. Penn State is just one of two teams - with the other being Stanford - selected to every NCAA postseason event (27) since its inception in 1981. The Nittany Lions have an overall NCAA record of 54-25, including six trips to the NCAA National Semifinals (1993, 1994, 1997, 1998, 1999, 2007) and two National Championships (1999, 2007). The five-time defending Big Ten Champions have also reached the National Title match on five occasions (1993, 1997, 1998, 1999, 2007).

Penn State has reached the Regional Final contest on 10 occasions and has 19 Semifinal berths, including 15 of the last 17 seasons. Penn State is 32-3 in NCAA Tournament matches at Rec Hall, having earned the right to host the first and second rounds 20 times since 1981, including the last 17 seasons.

Defending Our House

The Nittany Lions take pride in "defending our house," otherwise known as Rec Hall. Overall since 2004, Penn State has dropped only three matches in Happy Valley, winning 68 of its last 70 contests at home. During the regular season (excluding NCAA play), the Nittany Lions have an even better record, winning their last 49 consecutive matches within the friendly confines. Penn State's last regular-season home loss was a five-game setback against Ohio State on Oct. 20, 2004. Overall, the Nittany Lions have won their last 37 straight matches at Rec Hall dating back to the loss to Tennessee in the NCAA Regional semifinal on Dec. 9, 2005. In the Big Ten, Penn State has a Rec Hall record of 158-12 since joining the conference for the 1991 season, a winning percentage of 0.929.

SINCE JOINING THE BIG TEN CONFERENCE FOR THE 1991 SEASON, PENN STATE STUDENT-ATHLETES HAVE EARNED A TOTAL OF 50 FIRST TEAM ALL-BIG TEN SELECTIONS.

And They're Smart Too!

Junior middle hitter Christa Harmotto and senior middle hitter Melissa Walbridge were honored for their work off the court as well as on the court. Harmotto was honored with ESPN The Magazine Third Team Academic-All America honors as Walbridge picked up Second Team Academic All-District accolades. It is the third career ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District honor for Walbridge and the first of its kind for Harmotto. Both were also Academic All-Big Ten honorees in 2006 and 2007. Harmotto holds a 3.34 gpa in Elementary Education and Walbridge boasts a 3.85 gpa in Integrative Arts.

Harmotto joins Sarah Pavan (Nebraska/Big 12) and Abby Breit (Jacksonville State/Ohio Valley) as one of only three student-athletes in the nation to be named both an ESPN The Magazine Academic All-American and the Player of the Year in their respective conferences.

Rose Joins Elite Company

In his 29th season at the helm of the Nittany Lion program, head coach Russ Rose captured his 900th career win with the victory over Michigan State on Friday, Sept. 21. Rose became only the third coach in NCAA Division I history to pass the plateau, joining UCLA's Andy Banachowski and Hawaii's Dave Shoji. Rose also owns the highest win total of any coach in Penn State Intercollegiate Athletics history.

Nearly Perfect

With the two wins over Ohio State and Michigan on Nov. 21 and 24, Penn State secured its fourth perfect Big Ten conference record. The last time Penn State went 20-0 for the Big Ten season was 2005. Since 1985 when double round-robin play was instituted in the Big Ten, only seven times has the conference champion gone undefeated, including Illinois in 1986 & 1988 with 18-0 records, Ohio State in 1991 with a 20-0 record and Penn State in 1998, 1999, 2005 and now 2007 with 20-0 marks.

The Nittany Lions also lost just six games during the conference season, one of the lowest totals in Big Ten history. The 2005 Penn State team lost only three individual games during the Big Ten season, a mark that equaled the 1998 Penn State team and tied the Big Ten record for the fewest games dropped in an undefeated conference season since 1985. The 1991 Ohio State team dropped only four games, the 1986 Illinois team lost only six sets, the 1999 Nittany Lion squad dropped seven games and the 1988 Illinois team lost only eight total games.

Over the last three seasons, Penn State holds a Big Ten winning percentage of .967, winning 58 of its last 60 league matches. Spanning the last four years, the Nittany Lions are 76-4 (.950) in conference action. In individual games, the Nittany Lions were 58-6 in games in 2007, and since 2004, Penn State has claimed 62 of its 76 league wins in three games, having been pushed to four or five on only 14 occasions.

Leading The Country

For the second consecutive year, Penn State ended the season with the best cumulative hitting percentage mark in the nation. The Nittany Lions attacked at a Big Ten-record clip of .350 and over the last two seasons have accumulated a combined hitting percentage of .336. Christa Harmotto ranked second (.492) nationally and Arielle Wilson ranked fifth (.446).

In addition, Penn State also ended the season ranked first in winning percentage (.944), second in blocks per game (3.82), ninth in kills per game (17.08) and 10th in assists (15.61). Individually, Alisha Glass ranked 24th in assists per game (13.02) while Arielle Wilson (1.80) and Christa Harmotto (1.65) ranked third and sixth, respectively, in blocks per game.

Within the conference, the Nittany Lions ended the year with a commanding lead over Wisconsin in overall cumulative season hitting percentage among league teams. Penn State ranked first with a .350 clip while the Badgers finished second at .270. The Nittany Lions smashed the Big Ten record for single-season hitting percentage, which was .346 and set by the 1998 Penn State team. In Big Ten-only matches, the Nittany Lions attacked at a .335 clip, with the Badgers being the next closest at .269. Individually in hitting percentage in conference-only contests, Harmotto sat first (.469), Wilson ranked second (.382), Blair Brown sat third (.368), Megan Hodge ranked ninth (.295) and Nicole Fawcett sat 10th (.291).

Climbing The Single-Season Charts

Several Lion players made their mark on the Penn State single-season record list during the 2007 season. Megan Hodge's 561 kills places her sixth while Nicole Fawcett's 533 kills puts her ninth. Hodge (4.60) and Fawcett (4.44) also ranked sixth and 11th respectively, in kills per game while Hodge now sits sixth in single-season attacks (1,278) and Fawcett is 15th.

Christa Harmotto just missed the single-season record for hitting percentage, as she attacked at a .492 clip for second, and Arielle Wilson's .446 hitting percentage placed her fourth all-time. Harmotto's 200 total blocks is seventh on the single-season list, her 1.65 blocks per game average ties her with Lauren Cacciamani's 1996 mark for seventh and her 167 block assists falls just 10 shy of the all-time record, placing her second. Wilson comes in at 19th with 131 block assists during the 2007 season.

Fawcett's 0.39 service aces per game average ranks her ninth on that list while Roberta Holehouse's 471 digs places her seventh, also good for ninth on the digs per game chart with 3.92.

Alisha Glass dished out 1,484 assists in 2007, which ties her for 10th with Sam Tortorello's 2005 mark, and Glass' 13.02 assists per game average ranks her fifth on the single-season chart.

PENN STATE IS ONE OF ONLY FIVE SCHOOLS IN THE NATION WHOSE WOMEN'S AND MEN'S VOLLEYBALL PROGRAMS HAVE CAPTURED AN NCAA NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP TITLE.

Long Beach State, Stanford, UCLA, USC

AND ONE OF TWO TO HAVE ITS WOMEN'S AND MEN'S PROGRAMS WIN IN THE SAME ACADEMIC YEAR.

Commanding The Conference

Penn State has won 76 of its last 80 Big Ten contests (95%), a mark that spans the last four seasons. Even more impressive is that the Nittany Lions have won 62 of those 76 contests in three games (82%). On the road, Penn State has claimed 38 of its last 40 Big Ten matches dating back to 2004 (95%), while at home, the Nittany Lions have dropped only two matches during the last four seasons, winning 38 of their last 40 Big Ten matches at Rec Hall. The last Lion loss at home in conference action was during the 2004 season.

Hitting The Mark

At the end of the Big Ten season, the Nittany Lions sat atop not only the league standings, but several conference statistical categories, including hitting percentage. Penn State attacked at a .335 clip in the Big Ten and recorded its highest percentage of the conference season against Ohio State on Oct. 10, hitting .462 and committing only two unforced hitting errors in the match. The mark was one of five above .400 in the 20 contests, as the Lions hit .434 against Michigan State in the Big Ten opener on Sept. 21, hit .402 at Minnesota on Oct. 26, attacked at a .439 clip against Indiana on Nov. 3 and hit .447 at Michigan on Nov. 24, just missing the .400 mark at Michigan State on Nov. 10 as the squad hit .396. The league low for the Lions was .226 at Illinois on Oct. 19, which was also a five-game match.

2007 HIGHLIGHTS

Back Atcha

Penn State played 36 matches in 2007 and recorded 10 or more team blocks in 30 of those contests. Highlighting the team blocking success was the Oct. 19 match at Illinois when the Nittany Lions racked up 25 team blocks, which is a Huff Hall record and also sets a new Penn State rally-scoring-era five game record. The previous team high was 21 team blocks at Texas on Sept. 8, 2006.

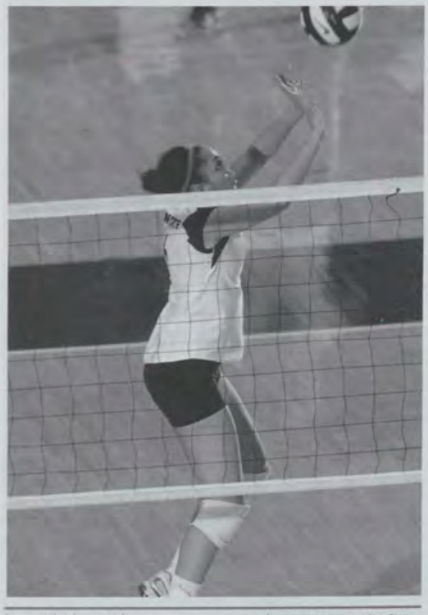
Individually against the Illini, several players also set some career and season records while also adding their names to the Penn State record books. Sophomore setter Alisha Glass shattered her previous career high of seven, doubling that mark by racking up 14 blocks in the five-game match, including three solo efforts and contributing on 11 more. Glass' blocking total sets a new rally-scoring-era five-game record and falls just one block shy of the all-time five-game match record of 15 set by middle hitter Robyn Goukas at Michigan on Oct. 7, 2000.

Junior middle hitter Christa Harmotto would have tied the five-game rally-scoring record if not for Glass' performance as she recorded 12 blocks against the Fighting Illini, a season-high mark and just one block shy of her career best. Freshman middle hitter Arielle Wilson also tied her career high with nine blocks against Illinois.

For the season, Penn State outblocked its opponents 465.5 to 216.5, an average of 3.82 blocks per game to 1.77 blocks per game.

Fawcett Into The Record Books

Junior outside hitter Nicole Fawcett etched her name into the record books once again as she racked up 31 kills in the five-game win over then-No. 18 Cal Poly on Aug. 31 in Lincoln, Neb. Fawcett's total, which came on .414 hitting, set a new Penn State five-game rally-scoring-era record and marked the first time a Nittany Lion player recorded 30 or more kills in match since Mishka Levy posted 31 kills against Akron on Aug. 31, 2002. Fawcett's 31 kills also fell just seven shy of the overall five-game record of 38, set by Terri Zemaitis at Illinois on Sept. 23, 1995.



➤ Alisha Glass was named a 2007 AVCA Second Team All-American, and also picked up First Team All-Big Ten honors.

Streaking

Penn State owns the top two Big Ten consecutive win streaks and is working to move up the chart with its third streak, at 25 heading into the 2008 season.

Condensing Player of the Week

Five Penn State players earned eight Big Ten Player of the Week honors in 2007, bringing the Lions' total to 58 awards since joining the conference for the 1991 season. Two players were also recognized nationally as the AVCA National Player of the Week for only the fourth and fifth times in program history. Below is a summary:

Nicole Fawcett:
Has five career Big Ten POW honors

• Oct. 8: In wins over Iowa and Minnesota, averaged 6.83 kills per game on .329 hitting while also adding two aces, eight digs and six blocks for an average of 7.75 points per game.

Alisha Glass:
Became the first Penn State player to be recognized twice as the AVCA National Player of the Week; earned her second Big Ten POW honor

• Nov. 19: led PSU to two wins to clinch the Big Ten title against Wisconsin and Illinois. For the weekend, Glass posted six kills on .500 hitting with 99 total assists for an average of 14.14 assists per game, also adding in 15 digs (2.14 dpg) and eight blocks (1.14 bpg). She had three players average more than 4.10 kills per game with another one adding in 2.80 kpg, and for the weekend, the team attacked at a .350 hitting percentage.

Christa Harmotto:
Has five career Big Ten POW honors

• Oct. 15: In wins over Ohio State and Michigan, averaged 3.67 kills per game, recording 22 kills on 34 swings with only one error, to hit .618 with 12 total blocks, good for an average of 2.00 blocks per game. She also added in two aces and five digs.

• Sept. 24: Opened the Big Ten season with wins over Michigan State and Northwestern. Averaged 2.83 kills per game on .556 hitting with three aces, five digs and a team-high 14 blocks, good for 2.33 blocks per game.

• Aug. 27: In season-opening consecutive four-game wins over Texas, provided 28 kills and 10 blocks on .535 hitting through eight games.

➤ Arielle Wilson became the sixth straight Nittany Lion to earn Big Ten Freshman of the Year honors, a league record.

Megan Hodge:
Picked up first career National POW award

• Sept. 10: Earned both the AVCA National and Big Ten POW honors after being named the MVP of the Penn State Classic. In wins over St. John's, Colgate and VCU, averaged 5.00 kills per game on the strength of .514 hitting with 3.33 digs per game and 1.22 blocks per game.

Arielle Wilson:
Earned 1st honor in first career Big Ten road weekend

• Nov. 5: averaged 3.00 kills per game on .433 hitting with 1.20 digs per game and 2.20 blocks per game in wins over Purdue and Indiana.

• Oct. 1: Named Defensive Player of the Week after averaging 3.60 kills per game on a team-high .536 attack percentage with an astounding 3.20 blocks per game, racking up 16 blocks in five games, including three solo efforts, in sweeps of Purdue and Indiana.

Player of the Week Fun

Penn State's eight Big Ten Player of the Week honors in 2007, earned by five different players, marks only the third time that one school has had five separate student-athletes win the accolade. Penn State's 1997 and 2005 squads all had five different players earn the honor while Michigan State's 1995 and 1999 teams and the 2006 Lion squad all boasted four different players winning the award.

Penn State players break into an impromptu victory dance following a sweep of Stanford for the NCAA Women's Volleyball Championship. The Nittany Lions' first title follows heart-breaking finals losses the past two seasons.

Nittany Lions exorcise past demons by sweeping Stanford

By Ann Miller

Penn State won its first NCAA Women's Volleyball Championship last night. Winning over the demons that plagued it the past two years was just a bonus.

The top-ranked Nittany Lions blew second-ranked Stanford away, 15-2, 15-10, 15-7, before 7,578 at Stan Sheriff Center. The sell-out Hawaii crowd (minus 2,700 no-shows) watched one of the most one-sided finals in NCAA history. Its only sign of life came between the second and third games, when Hawaii senior Heather Bown was announced with the All-America teams.

Maybe the crowd was in shock. Penn State's charge to its first championship — and only the third for a team outside of Hawaii or California — wasn't that surprising, but its dominance was.

A year ago, the Nittany Lions lost their unbeaten season in a five-game NCAA final against Long Beach State. Two years ago, the Cardinal won its fourth NCAA title in five games, also against Penn State.

The Nittany Lions had become the Stanford of the '80s. In those early years, the Cardinal was good enough to get to six final fours, but never good enough to win. That changed in 1992. Going into last night, Stanford was 9-1 and the decade's darling.

The '90's are almost over. The Nittany Lions, who won their last 36 matches after a season-opening loss, are now the team to best. Seniors Bonnie Bremner, Carrie Schonveld and Lauren Cacciamani, the tournament MVP a second straight year, finished their careers 136-7.

"This is a marvelous occasion for those who have been in the game a long time," Penn State coach Russ Rose said softly, without a hint of emotion.

Bremner, the All-American setter who had feuded with her coach all season, was just as composed, but didn't try to hide her joy.

"The last two years motivated me," said Bremner, who started every match for four years. "I can't get those back. I lived with that everyday. I wanted to live with something else, something better."

Last night, the Nittany Li-

Stanford vs. Penn State

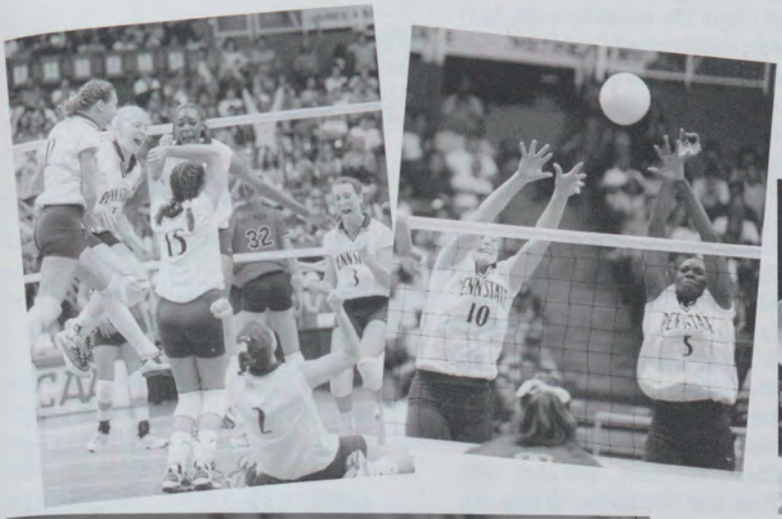
Stanford's Kerri Walsh, left, and Penn State's Lauren Cacciamani shared Player of the Year honors. Stanford's Logan Tom, below, was the Freshman of the Year.

"Losing in the finals two years in a row motivated me to get it done. I knew I couldn't get those back and I lived with that every day. Now I can live with something else."

– Bonnie Bremner on winning the 1999 NCAA National Championship

"The fact that it eluded us after being so close the last two seasons made it sweet to win. But I don't think a National Championship validates a program. We run a good, clean program and that is what I am most proud of."

– Head Coach Russ Rose on winning the National Championship



"There couldn't be any better way to end a senior year. There couldn't be a better way to come home to State College."

THIRD TIME A CHARM AS LIONS CLAIM NCAA TITLE

HONOLULU--In just one hour and 20 minutes, the top-ranked Penn State women's volleyball team erased memories of five game losses in the previous two title matches by sweeping Stanford for the first NCAA volleyball national championship in school history. The Nittany Lions defeated the Cardinal 15-2, 15-10, 15-7 in front of a sold-out crowd of 10,252 fans at the Stan Sheriff Center at the University of Hawaii.

"I think we set the stage for the win in the first game when we had 10 blocks," said head coach Russ Rose. "We had a great game plan and the players played with passion and enthusiasm right out of the chute. I believe the players are the ones that placed themselves in a position to get into this situation and I thought they handled all the distractions that normally come in a match like this as well as they possible could."

> "I think we had a great game plan and the players played with a lot of passion and enthusiasm right out of the chute."

> – Head coach Russ Rose on defeating Stanford for the NCAA Championship

It was a perfect ending for the three seniors who had started in the previous two title matches. Each of the trio played one of their best matches of the year, including senior Lauren Cacciamani who was named the Most Outstanding Player after pounding out a match-high 20 kills with eight blocks. Also the 1999 National Co-Player of the Year, she and the rest of the team weren't about to fall behind by two games again this year.

"We did get an opportunity to watch a lot of film and we knew that we had to come out and jump on them," Cacciamani said. "We were going to try to go out there and dictate instead of having them show us what was going to go on. We were planning on going out strong and with a lot of fight."

Seniors Bonnie Bremner and Carrie Schonveld were also named to the NCAA Championship All-Tournament team. Bremner dished out 37 assists with four kills of her own. She also hit .333 with six digs and a pair of blocks. Schonveld had nine kills to go with her team-high 10 digs. The outside hitter hit .368 on the night and also aided at the net with three blocks (1 BS, 2 BA).

The Lions were banking on their previous championship experience and it finally paid off. "We played well and at times we wanted to keep the ball in play and hope that they would make mistakes," Bremner said. "They're a big team that's going to get a lot of kills, but we were also figuring they would make mistakes."

The Penn State blockers created a wall that the Stanford hitters could not avoid. Fueled by Cacciamani's eight blocks, the Lions held the Cardinal to a season-low -.008 hitting percentage as 1999 Co-Player of the Year Kerri Walsh zeroed out (11k-11e-33ta). They also held 1999 Freshman-of-the-Year Logan Tom to negative numbers (7k-10e-31ta, -.097)

Redshirt-freshman Mishka Levy and sophomore Katie Schumacher each added five blocks--both with one solo and four assisted. Each of the six players that rotated to the front row recorded at least one block as Penn State ended the evening with 15 to Stanford's 10.5.

"We blocked incredibly well and with patience," Rose said. "We blocked 10 balls and they had nine hitting errors in addition to that (in the first game), in my opinion they never got into a flow and I think some of their younger players weren't ready for that. We knew what we wanted to do and we recognized that a couple of players were going to be able to get their kills. We had a game plan that we felt comfortable about and believed would be successful."

Schumacher also added nine kills with three each from Levy and sophomore Amanda Rome.

The Lions only trailed during one part of the match. Down 3-1 in game two, the Lions rolled off three-consecutive points to resume the lead and never looked back the rest of the way. It was the first time this season the Cardinal had been swept.

The Lions end the season with a 36-1 mark with the only loss coming in the season opener to Florida on Aug. 27. It was a matter off pulling things together to end the season on a high note.

> "We didn't peak at the beginning of the season, obviously. We progressed and got better as the season wore on. The younger people got a lot better and the older people became better leaders and got it together as well. So it was an uphill progression leading towards the end."
> – Senior Lauren Cacciamani on losing the first match of the year before closing out the season with 36 straight wins.

"We didn't peak at the beginning of the season, obviously," Cacciamani said. "We lost our first match so we knew we wouldn't go undefeated. We did a good job playing as a team. We progressed and got better as the season wore on. The younger people improved and the older people became better leaders and kept it together as well. So it was an uphill progression leading towards the end."

FINISHING ON TOP

The class of 1999 – Bonnie Bremner, Lauren Cacciamani, Kalna Miller and Carrie Schonveld – had been through it before but their final year had a different, even storybook ending. After losing in the regionals finals as freshmen, these four followed up with a pair of NCAA Semifinal appearances that led to five-game losses in the title match. Those memories were all erased with a three-game sweep of Stanford for the first women's volleyball title in school history.

What the seniors were a part of is nothing short of incredible. They helped Penn State to an amazing 137-5 record with a share of two Big Ten championships (1996 & 1997) before winning it outright in 1998 and 1999. The quartet also compiled a 77-3 mark (.963) in Big Ten matches, including consecutive 20-0 seasons over the past two years. They made Penn State the first school in Big Ten history to win four consecutive crowns and never lost a match at home.

HOME SWEET HOME

Talk about a home-court advantage – the four seniors never even lost a match and dropped only nine games in University Park.

The 1999 senior class took the court in Rec Hall 78 times in their four years and each time they left with a win – a large part of the reason Penn State owns the NCAA record for consecutive home wins at 87.

What's even more amazing is the manner in which Penn State has won at home. During the seniors' last 62 matches in Rec Hall, only Wisconsin (twice) and Texas (twice) were able to take a game. But it gets better...in the 80 consecutive home wins the class was a part of, 72 of those were three-game sweeps and the Lions never had to play five games.

2005 TOUR OF ITALY & SLOVENIA

May 10

Dobrodosli ("welcome") to the Penn State Volleyball European tour 2005! Today was our first full day here and we have already done so much! Staying in the scenic city of Izola, we are pretty immersed in Slovenian culture. It's been drizzling a bit but we are staying right on the harbor of the Adriatic coast in the Hotel Marina and it is absolutely gorgeous. The brightly-colored buildings, green mountains and crystal clear sea make everything seem sunny. There is not a whole lot of English spoken here, so we stick out a lil' bit. The people have been pretty nice for the most part though, and we've managed to learn a bit of Slovenian: please = "prosim", thank you = "hvala", how much = "koliko" and "bela kava brez koffeina" = decaff cafe latte... I've already used that one about 4 times. All the girls are having a great time. We practiced last night after we got in and then played our first match today against a club team from Croatia. They were pretty young so we won all 5 games easily. We travel to the capital city of LJubljana tomorrow to play another match and see the sites. We will leave early in the morning to tour the city and then play in the afternoon. Tim and Jo from BringItUSA have really planned out a great trip for us. All the girls are really excited and the parents and boosters are having a good time too... with a few exceptions. So far the Naylors lost their luggage and got locked out of their room, the Janias tried to use a $1USD in an Italian Coke machine and then got their debit card chopped up in Izola, and Mrs. Holm tried to play matchmaker with the manager of a Slovenian pizzeria (which would be alright if the service wasn't so sub-par). So, to sum up... everyone is over their jetlag, we're loving Slovenia, and can't wait to get some more competition under our belts as we continue to travel the world!! Ciao!

Kim Holm and the Penn State Women's Volleyball team

Ciao! Greetings from Slovenia. We started off this morning with a European breakfast at The Hotel Marina and then headed off to spend the day in Ljubljana, the capital of Slovenia. Upon arrival, we went to the tourist information center and got brochures of the entire city followed by a train ride to the medieval Ljubljana Castle. The castle is a fine feature of the city and nowadays it is a popular tourist spot. After the train ride back into the city square, we split up for a day of site seeing and fun. Our next step was a bus ride to our match. We played five games against a team called Nova Gorica, winning four of the five games. The match was very lively with a few face shots and a lot of cheering. The owner of the gym we played in also owned a restaurant nearby and he invited us to enjoy his five course cuisine. The food and atmosphere was amazing and the team, coaches, parents, and boosters all had a fabulous time. Tomorrow we leave Slovenia and are off to Venice, Italy.

Today we finally woke up to the blue skies of Slovenia, only to say goodbye as we loaded the bus to continue on to Venice, Italy. After the bus ride we laced up our sneakers, stole the nearest "Vaporetto" (a motorboat used as a canal bus in Venice) and raced to the city - it was all Sam's idea! (Okay, so maybe the dramatic entrance is a slight exaggeration, but you know how girls can be.) After we docked near Piazza San Marco, the real adventures began. We had the entire day to absorb the city, and that we did. These are some of the interesting things I learned today:

1.) Imagine literally stepping into a world unlike anything you have ever seen. Imagine walking through massive crowds of people all speaking different languages. Now imagine seeing absolutely breathtaking architecture and scenery all around you. And finally, imagine 14 young American women (plus one Canadian) gracefully dodging hundreds of swooping pigeons while trying to take it all in at once. Thankfully, we all have cat-like reflexes and nobody was seriously injured.

2.) It's true what they say - Italian men really aren't afraid to sweep a woman off her feet! Maggie, Ashley Fidler, Melissa and I ate a delicious meal along the Grand Canal and as we were thanking the waiters and saying goodbye, the chef came from behind the counter, pinched my cheeks and picked me up in the middle of the restaurant! I am 6-5 ... he was probably 5-7 ... you do the math! Today marks the first time any man has dared to accomplish what he did. Sorprendente! (Amazing!)

On a more serious note, today was a perfect example of why we are so thankful to be in Italy doing what we love, and we are thankful to be sharing it with some of the people who helped make it possible. We were all able to see Venice through our own eyes and learned a lot about the culture and history. We split up into different groups and spent the day shopping and exploring all the city has to offer. It was a beautiful day in Venice, but there is still work to be done! We left the sinking city behind and drove to Pordenone, where we will play the local team tomorrow night. Kim and Kaleena have been playing very well, so tomorrow will be a good opportunity for some new faces to step up and contribute! We will keep you posted, but until next time, there is volleyball to be played and more dessert to be eaten! CIAO!

May 13

Boun Giorno fellow Americanos (Good morning fellow Americans!). We spent day 6 in Pordenone. After breakfast most of us enjoyed the downtown shopping of the city. This city was most like the cities that we are used to in the United States. There are more cars and traffic here then in the previous places we have been. Small boutiques lined the streets with an occasional department store. In the afternoon we ventured to the Villa Manin, which is a palace of the former Doge. The enormous structure and beautiful architecture were overwhelming. Unique art lined the walls of one of the sections of the castle, while other sections displayed old weaponry and carriages. The chapel was detailed in elegant artwork. We did not have the opportunity to view the actual rooms of the castle because of restoration, but we were told that Napoleon had slept there and that his room was preserved. From the castle we came back to the hotel to enjoy the traditional Italian pregame meal, which was actually breakfast. This included cereal, fruit, yogurt, and various pastries. On the way to the gym our tour guides indulged us with the translations of a local newspaper article that was about the team being in the town. The article was informative and contained a picture of us receiving our Big Ten trophy. The match was held at a nearby town owned gym. We won four out of the five games that we played against Pallavolo Pordenone in front of a very lively crowd. The match was the most the competitive one since we have been here and was fun to play in. After we played, we ate dinner (at 10:30 at night). It is custom to eat pasta as an appetizer, but we did not know this before so most of us ate it as a meal. Little did we know that we were also having meat, fries, salad, and dessert! It was a great ending to a wonderful day! Arrivederci (goodbye)!!

Ciao fellow Americans and Canadians,

Well, our arrival into Pesaro came on our official graduation day, had we been in State College. So, as our final college project, here is our journal entry! On the bus yesterday, driving from Pordenone to Pesaro, we had to present our research on the Marche region to everyone on the bus, complete with our graduation caps!

We are planning on spending 3 days total in this region, the first two in Pesaro, and the third in Comunanza. The region is pronounced "lay markay," and in English, it translates to "the Marches." The region lies on the eastern seaboard in central Italy, bordered by the Adriatic Sea to the east, and the Appenine mountains to the central part of the country. Pesaro is the capital city of this province, and is a bustling seaside resort town. Fortunately, we're here before most of the tourist season begins, so we've had the town all to ourselves!

When we arrived to our beachfront hotel yesterday, we all ate lunch together, before we had a bit of down time last night. A few of us had the opportunity to accompany Coach Rose and Tim Kelly (in charge of our tour, he runs Bring It USA) to a professional women's volleyball match in a small town about 1.5 hours away from here. The gymnasium was full of enthusiastic and loud spectators, and it was a lot of fun! It was a match between the 2nd and 3rd place teams in the A2 division of the Italian professional league, with the winner of this match having the opportunity to move up to the A1 league next year. Wiz Bachman, former UCLA standout, was playing for the team that ended up losing in four games.

Today we had some free time to take in the sites of Pesaro, which is the hometown of famed opera composer, Giaochino Rossini. This evening we had a chance to play our fourth match, against a team from Gabiche, Italy, about 15 minutes from Pesaro. We won the four games we played in the match, and every member of the team had a chance to play.

Tomorrow we'll have a chance to go to an Italian Catholic mass if we want, before getting back on the road and heading over to Comunanza. From what we've heard so far, it's a small mountain town, about 3 blocks long and 1 block wide. We'll be there only one night, and the gentleman who runs the hotel/restaurant where we'll be staying is so excited to host all of us! People drive from miles around to eat at his restaurant, so we're looking forward to tasting the food for ourselves!! We have two matches left on this trip, one tomorrow night in Comunanza, and the last in Rome on Tuesday night. Buonas sera from Italy!

After winding through the Italian hillsides, our team arrived in the town of Comunanza. The town was small with a population of around 3,000 people. We stayed where executives generally stayed when they would visit the major factory just outside of the town. It was very nice place to stay as five of the girls got to stay in a 3-bedroom apartment that had two bathrooms and a dining room. Once we got settled in our rooms the team got on our jerseys and walked to the gym. We played a club team from Amandola. Their team was short a few players so Ashley Fidler volunteered to play with the other team. We won the match in 3 games, while Kris Brown and Kaleena even got a chance to play front row. That night we had what most of the team considered our best meal of the trip. It was a traditional Italian family meal with multiple courses and elaborate dishes. One of the first dishes we ate was intestine and eggs. It was a long meal the lasted late into the night.

The next morning we were off to begin our long drive to Rome. We wove through the mountains and hills on roads that you wouldn't think buses could travel through. After nearly a five-hour trip we finally arrived in Rome, the 'eternal city.' We checked into the hotel and were immediately off to the Metro station just a few blocks away. The Metro is very small and crowded because the designers of the Metro wanted to avoid digging railways under ancient Roman architecture. Our first stop took us to see the Spanish Steps, which was a series of three levels of steps leading up to a church. The lining of the steps was covered in flowers and it was a great place to take a team picture. Our next stop was the Trevi Fountain. This was the first elaborate sculpture work we saw in Rome and we were in awe. It is said that you must throw a coin into the fountain but you must throw the coin with your back facing the fountain. The number of coins you throw also determines your fortune. One coin and you'll return to Rome, two coins and you'll fall in love. With our backs facing the fountain, Maggie, Cassy, Fidler, and I threw in two coins each.

Our last stop of the day was to visit the Pantheon. As we walked inside we were amazed by the massive pillars holding the structure up. They lead us into a large circular dome with more sculptures and a roof with a giant circular hole allowing sunlight to pour inside. The basement of the building is also a resting place for people such as Raffaello a famous painter, Voltaire a philosopher, Murrie and Piere Currie both famous scientists as well as Victor Hugo the first president of unified Italy. After seeing the Pantheon we were all tired and grabbed some dinner, found the Metro and went back to our hotel.

Today (Tuesday, May 17th) we got up and again took the Metro to see the Coliseum. I stepped out of the station and all I could see was the building. The structure was built between 12AD and 80AD and most of it still remains standing today. When it was first built it was called the Amphitheatre Flavium, and held up to 50,000 people. It was used to hold battles between animals and humans along with chariot races and mock naval battles.. The rest of the day we were able to tour around and explore the city of Rome. Other sites we saw included the Forum, the Arch of Constantine, and the Monument of Vittoriale. All of the sites were unique and amazing in their own respect. It was odd to see such monuments scattered amongst current shops and restaurants including McDonalds.

Tonight we played our 6th and final match in a town of Usaro, which is thirty minutes to an hour away from Rome depending on traffic. We played one of our more competitive matches against a club team called As Fidia Ladispoli. We won all five games although it was a bittersweet victory. It was the last time our three seniors; Tab, Syndie and Ashley would play in their PSU uniforms. The club team had ordered pizza for us and we shared it with them before getting on the bus and heading back to Rome.

Tomorrow is our last full day. We are going to see the Vatican City in the morning and the Pope may be speaking. The trip is almost over and it is going very fast but I'm very excited to get up tomorrow and see the Sistine Chapel.

ALISHA Glass All-American 2007

"The list of All-Americans was always something I looked for when I was younger. The players that made the list were my role models, and the teams they played on, the things they achieved were what I aspired to. Penn State is one of those great programs with a tradition of outstanding players, distinguished coaches, and an amazing support system. I am honored to make the list, and be a part of a hard-working team that accomplished something great together in 2007, and I can't wait for what's in store for 2008!"

All-American 2002-2003

"Looking back on my career, both athletically and academically, I think of the entire experience and it's a bigger picture than just athletics. I'm going to miss volleyball, but even more, I'm going to miss the people. The entire Penn State experience of being a part of a tradition and making a difference in the program, being an All-American is just an extra honor to cap off my entire career."

State College, Pa.; Oct. 6, 1997 - Penn State can now say it is truly the number one team in the country, as tonight it beat the USA Volleyball Women's National Team, 15-8, 15-13, 13-15, 15-12. Rec Hall was full of electricity as 2,211 fans cheered the Lions on in route to becoming the first college team to take a game from Team USA, much less win a match.

"We were aided by the home crowd and the excitement of the event---We had nothing to lose," said Penn State head coach Russ Rose. "I thought we played hard and competed hard. It was a great team victory."

Sophomore middle hitter Lauren Cacciamani (Paramus, N.J.) posted match-highs of 18 kills and 11 blocks to lead the Nittany Lions. Outside hitter Carrie Schonveld (Portage, Mich.) notched 14 kills, nine blocks and a team-high 16 digs, while junior outside Christy Cochran (Bethlehem, Pa.) posted 14 kills and 14 digs. In addition, sophomore setter Bonnie Bremner (Lisle, Ill.) had 56 assists and 15 digs.

Team USA was paced by outside hitter Karrie Downey and right side Allison Weston, who both notched 16 kills and 20 digs. Former Penn State All-American Salima Davidson, now the United States' starting setter and team captain, had 63 assists, 10 digs and five kills.

"I think they played a great match, they played like Penn State and that's the bottom line, " Davidson noted. "We played hard, but we could have played harder."

Penn State won game one easily, after racing to a 10-1 lead. Early on, game two was much the same, as the Lions used their momentum to go up 7-3, but Team USA battled back to take a 10-7 lead. However, Penn State's block woke up, as it rallied to take the game 15-13. For the match, Penn State out-blocked the national squad 22.5-11.

The third game was all Team USA, as it seized the lead early, and held on down the stretch. The final frame was a see-saw battle, as the lead changed hands numerous times. With the score tied at 12-12, Cacciamani put down a spike and senior middle hitter Terri Zemaitis (Downers Grove, Ill.) and junior opposite Lindsay Anderson (Crystal Lake, Ill.) had consecutive blocks to close out the match.

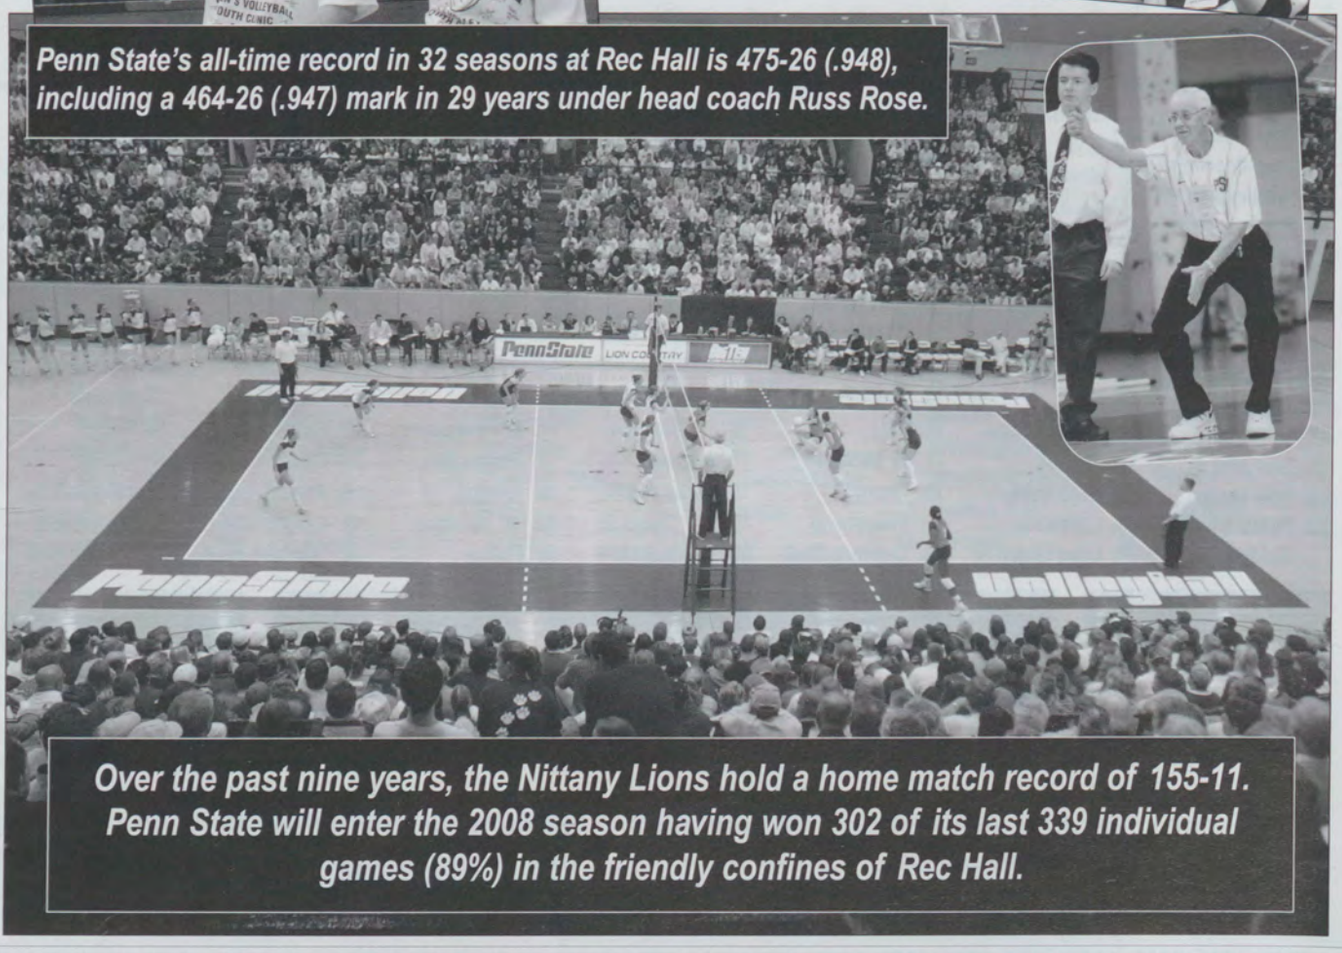
Penn State's all-time record in 32 seasons at Rec Hall is 475-26 (.948), including a 464-26 (.947) mark in 29 years under head coach Russ Rose.



Over the past nine years, the Nittany Lions hold a home match record of 155-11. Penn State will enter the 2008 season having won 302 of its last 339 individual games (89%) in the friendly confines of Rec Hall.

REC HALL - HOME OF THE NITTANY LIONS

Recreation Building, or Rec Hall as it is affectionately known, is the home of the Penn State men's and women's volleyball, men's and women's gymnastics and wrestling teams. Built in 1929, the gymnasium has hosted several different national and international competitions in various sports, including the 2002 and 2006 Men's Volleyball National Collegiate Championship, the 2007 Women's Gymnastics and 2008 Men's Gymnastics Big Ten Championships, the 2008 NCAA Women's Gymnastics Regional Championships and the 2007 Men's Gymnastics National Collegiate Championships. Rec Hall has also been pivotal in the women's volleyball world as it has hosted multiple events, including the NCAA First and Second Rounds 21 times and the 2005 and 2007 NCAA Regional Championships. Rec Hall will again play host to the NCAA Regional Championship in 2008 as one of four sites around the country on the road to Omaha.

The recently-renovated Penn State women's volleyball locker room, located in historic Rec Hall, features a meeting and scouting room, a lounge for studying and relaxing and state-of-the-art personal lockers for each student-athlete.

NITTANY LION BOOSTER CLUB

➤ Penn State women's volleyball has many supporters, including country music star Tim McGraw.

➤ Nittany Lion boosters hosted the team for brunch when Penn State was in California to play Stanford during the 2004 season.

➤ Russ Rose discusses the upcoming season with the Nittany Lion Volleyball Booster Club.

★ Nittany Lion Volleyball Booster Club ★

The club was formed to promote women's volleyball at Penn State and in the community and to provide support for the student-athletes and staff. The Club sponsors a preseason picnic, a postseason banquet and hospitality events after home matches. Persons interested in joining the Club may write:

THE UNIVERSITY

Penn State was chartered in 1855 as one of the nation's first colleges of scientific agriculture. The institution was located in Centre County after James Irvin, a partner in the Centre Furnace iron works (remains of which can be seen today along East College Avenue), agreed to donate 200 acres of farmland for a campus.

Penn State admitted its first students in 1859. Founding President Evan Pugh, a chemist, hoped to expand the curriculum beyond agriculture to include other scientific studies and engineering. Pugh and similar visionaries in other states lobbied for Congressional passage of the Morrill Land-Grant Act in 1862. The act enabled states to sell federal land and use the income to support colleges "where the leading object shall be, without excluding scientific and classical studies...to teach agriculture and the mechanic arts (engineering)...in order to promote the liberal and practical education of the industrial classes in all the pursuits and professions of life." In 1863, the Pennsylvania legislature designated Penn State the Commonwealth's sole land-grant institution. But Pugh died the following year, and the college drifted, not being especially distinctive for any kind of study. One positive event during those troubled years was the admission of the first women students in 1871.

In 1882, newly appointed President George W. Atherton introduced engineering studies, and Penn State soon became one of the nation's 10 largest undergraduate engineering schools, a distinction it still holds. Atherton invigorated the liberal arts, and recruited Professor of English Fred Pattee to teach the nation's first course in American literature, heretofore considered an unworthy stepchild of English literature. Professor of Agriculture Whitman Jordan won international recognition for soil and fertilizer research. Penn State graduated its first international student in 1890 and African-American student in 1905. The college had finally found meaning and purpose.

In the early 1900s, Penn State launched an extensive system of outreach education, "carrying the college to the people," as then-President Edwin Sparks liked to say. Penn State became the nation's first college to offer correspondence courses in agriculture, and in 1912 helped launch a statewide system of county agents in agriculture and home economics. Today's World Campus, with its "anywhere, anytime" learning, is descended from that strong outreach tradition.

But undergraduate education remained foremost. As enrollment surpassed 5,000 in 1936, Penn State became Pennsylvania's largest source of baccalaureate degrees. Also in the 1930s, a state-wide system of undergraduate centers was created for students who, because of Depression-era economics, could not afford to leave their hometowns to get a college education. The centers offered the first year of baccalaureate studies and were the predecessors of today's system of 19 undergraduate campuses spread across the Commonwealth.

Research also was becoming increasingly important, in its own right and as an enhancement to learning opportunities for students. In 1953, the Pennsylvania State College became The Pennsylvania State University to show that research and graduate work had come of age. International acclaim resulted from investigations in such diverse fields as dairy science, acoustics, psychology, and petroleum refining. The University was among the first academic institutions anywhere to operate a nuclear reactor, build a large-scale electronic computer, and develop an electron microscope.

In the 1960s, Penn State underwent tremendous expansion to meet the growing needs of the baby boom generation. Total enrollment at all campuses climbed to 40,000 by 1970. Today, enrollment exceeds 80,000 students at 24 campuses statewide, including Penn State Milton S. Hershey Medical Center, the Pennsylvania College of Technology, the Dickinson School of Law, and the Penn State Great Valley School of Graduate Professional Studies.

The University has conferred approximately 600,000 degrees since its founding, but academic quality has kept pace with quantitative growth. For example, Penn State was named one of the nation's best colleges and universities by the American public in a recent Gallup Poll, and nearly 40 of its academic programs regularly rank among the ten best in their field nationwide.

NITTANY LION LEGEND

Penn State's athletic symbol, chosen by the student body in 1906, is the mountain lion which once roamed central Pennsylvania.

H.D. "Joe" Mason, a member of the Class of 1907, conducted a one-man campaign to choose a school mascot after seeing the Princeton tiger on a trip with the Penn State baseball team to that New Jersey campus. A student publication sponsored the campaign to select a mascot and Penn State is believed to be the first college to adopt the lion as a mascot.

Since Penn State is located in the Nittany Valley at the foot of Mount Nittany, the lion was designated as a Nittany Lion. In regional folklore, Nittany (or Nita-Nee) was a valorous Indian princess in whose honor the Great Spirit caused Mount Nittany to be formed. A later namesake, daughter of chief O-Ko-Cho, who lived near the mouth of Penn's Creek, fell in love with Malachi Boyer, a trader. The tearful maiden and her lost lover became legend and her name was given to the stately mountain.

THE NITTANY LION SHRINE

Penn State's Nittany Lion shrine was dedicated on Oct. 24, 1942, during Homecoming Weekend. Animal sculptor Heinz Warneke and stonecutter Joseph Garatti molded a 13-ton block of Indiana limestone into the most recognizable symbol of Penn State. The shrine was chosen from six models submitted by Warneke.

The shrine is a gift of the Class of 1940 and rests in a natural setting of trees near Recreation Building. The site was chosen because of its accessibility, the surrounding trees and the fact that the sculpture would not be dwarfed by nearby buildings.

BLUE & WHITE

Penn State's student-athletes are instantly identified by their blue and white uniforms — but those weren't the original school colors.

A three-member committee representing the sophomore, junior and senior classes was appointed in October of 1887 to develop color options from which the student body would select the school's official colors. Dark pink and black was the unanimous choice of the student body after considering the color combinations presented by the committee.

Soon many students and the baseball team were sporting pink and black striped blazers and caps. However, problems arose when the pink faded to white after several weeks of exposure to the sun. The students then opted for blue, rather than black, and white. The official announcement of the new choice was made on March 18, 1890.

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT DR. GRAHAM SPANIER

Since he was appointed Penn State's 16th president in 1995, Dr. Graham Spanier has been the guiding force behind several historic academic initiatives, including the creation of The Schreyer Honors College, the School of International Affairs, the Penn State World Campus, and the College of Information Sciences and Technology. He has expanded outreach to citizens of Pennsylvania and has overseen more than $2.5 billion in philanthropic contributions to Penn State.

Dr. Spanier has been described as an unconventional university president. He loves spending time with students. He is a magician and adviser to the Penn State Performing Magicians, and he has performed with Penn State's Musical Theatre students, the Blue Band, the Glee Club, and the Chamber Orchestra. He occasionally substitutes for the Nittany Lion mascot. He has run with the bulls in Pamplona, has a commercial pilot's license, and plays the washboard with the Deacons of Dixieland, the Phyrst Phamily, and other bands. He and his racquetball partner are nine-time Penn State co-ed intramural racquetball champions. He is the host of "To the Best of My Knowledge," the live, call-in program on public television and radio. But most of his time is spent overseeing one of the nation's largest and most comprehensive universities, with 90,000 students and 40,000 employees on 24 campuses, an annual budget of $3.6 billion, and a physical plant of 1,700 buildings.

Dr. Spanier's prior positions include chancellor of the University of Nebraska-Lincoln, provost and vice president for academic affairs at Oregon State University, and vice provost for undergraduate studies at the State University of New York at Stony Brook. He previously served Penn State from 1973-1982 as a member of the faculty and in three administrative positions in Penn State's College of Health and Human Development. He holds academic appointments as professor of human development and family studies, sociology, demography, and family and community medicine.

A distinguished researcher and scholar, he has more than 100 scholarly publications, including 10 books, and was the founding editor of the Journal of Family Issues. A family sociologist, demographer, and marriage and family therapist, he earned his Ph.D. in sociology from Northwestern University, where he was a Woodrow Wilson Fellow, and his bachelor's and master's degrees from Iowa State University, where he was honored with the Distinguished Achievement Citation and an honorary doctorate.

A national leader in higher education, Dr. Spanier serves as chair of the Association of American Universities. He serves as chair of the National Security Higher Education Advisory Board, is a member of the National Counterintelligence Working Group, and is a member of the Board of Advisors of the Naval Postgraduate School. He served as chair of the Board of Directors of the National Association of State Universities and Land-Grant Colleges, chair of the Big Ten Conference Council of Presidents/Chancellors, and chair of the NCAA Division I Board of Directors. He led the Kellogg Commission on the Future of State and Land-Grant Universities, was a founding member of the Internet2 board, served on the Board of Trustees of the National 4-H Council, and serves on the Board of Junior Achievement Worldwide. He was president of the National Council of Family Relations, chairman of the Board of Directors of the Christian Children's Fund, vice-chair of the Worldwide Universities Network, and co-chair of the Committee on Higher Education and the Entertainment Communities.

His wife, Sandra, is an English professor specializing in 20th-century American literature and serves as the general editor of Hemingway's letters. They have two children: Brian, a finance graduate of Penn State, and Hadley, a marketing graduate of Penn State.

➤ University President Dr. Graham Spanier is hoisted by students during THON, an event that has raised millions for childhood cancer.

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS TIM CURLEY

Well into his second decade as the architect of the Penn State Intercollegiate Athletics program, Tim Curley's dynamic and passionate leadership has been the driving force behind the Nittany Lions' tremendous level of athletic and academic achievement.

Named Director of Athletics on December 30, 1993, Curley's leadership has lifted Penn State among the nation's premier athletic departments. During the Nittany Lions' 15 full years as members of the Big Ten Conference, Penn State has captured 15 NCAA Championships, almost double the number of the next closest Big Ten institution.

Curley, who celebrated 30 years as a member of the Nittany Lions' athletics staff in 2006, has seen Nittany Lion squads win 50 Big Ten titles and numerous individual national and conference crowns during his nearly 15 years directing Penn State's comprehensive and nationally-respected athletic program.

The 2007-08 sports year included four Big Ten Championships and two NCAA team crowns, giving Penn State four national titles in the past two years. The women's volleyball team won an unprecedented fifth consecutive outright Big Ten Championship and captured its second NCAA Championship in the past eight years. The women's soccer team won its 10th consecutive Big Ten Championship, the second-longest string of Big Ten women's titles in any sport. The field hockey squad advanced to the NCAA Championship match for the second time in five years.

During the 2008 spring semester, the No. 1 men's volleyball team captured its second NCAA Championship and the men's gymnastics team, the 2007 NCAA Champions, won the Big Ten title. The women's track and field team continued its rise to national prominence, winning its first Big Ten outdoor title and finishing a program-best fourth at the NCAA Championships. Seventeen squads were represented in their respective NCAA Championships, with an impressive eight teams finishing in the Top 5. Include the 51 All-Americans and 36 first-team All-Big Ten selections, a record student-athlete Graduation Success Rate of 88 percent and six Academic All-Americans and 2007-08 was another tremendous year of Success With Honor for the Nittany Lions.

A 1976 Penn State graduate, Curley's dedicated and enthusiastic leadership has helped Penn State capture 13 Big Ten championships or tournament titles the past three years, the third-highest total in the conference.

During the fall 2005 semester, Penn State won an unprecedented five Big Ten Championships — in field hockey, football, men's soccer, women's soccer and women's volleyball — becoming the first institution to win more than three titles in the fall season in the 110-year history of the Big Ten Conference. Nittany Lions teams compiled an incredible 49-1 record against Big Ten competition in the fall.

As he surveys the athletic program he has been instrumental in assembling over the past 30 years, Tim Curley can't help but be proud of the athletic and academic accomplishments of Penn State's 750 student-athletes in 29 varsity sports:

• During a visit to the University Park campus, NCAA President Myles Brand stated, "Penn State is the poster child for doing it right in college sports."

• In the first 15 years of the NACDA Directors' Cup all-sports survey, Penn State has finished in the top 25 every year, with eight top 10 finishes and four top-five placings. The Lions were No. 4 in the 2008 winter rankings and finished No. 9.

• In the most recent comprehensive look at the 117 colleges and universities participating in Division I football and men's basketball, U.S. News and World Report selected Penn State as one of 10 Division I-A institutions for its College Sports Honor Roll. Data on gender equity, number of varsity sports, graduation rates, sanctions, and wins and losses were analyzed to determine the listing.

• Penn State has captured 15 NCAA Championships in men's and women's volleyball; men's and women's fencing and men's gymnastics during Curley's tenure. Nittany Lion and Lady Lion teams have made 27 NCAA "Final Four" appearances during his tenure.

• Penn State also has established itself as a force in the highly competitive Big Ten — winning 54 regular-season or tournament titles in football, baseball, women's basketball, field hockey, men's gymnastics, men's soccer, women's soccer, men's and women's swimming and diving, women's indoor and outdoor track and field and women's volleyball. The Lions have won 24 Big Ten championships over the past six years, including a school-record six in 2005-06.

• In November 2007, the NCAA reported that Penn State student-athletes earned a school-record 88 percent Graduation Success Rate, 11 points higher than the national Division I-A average. Twenty-two of Penn State's 25 teams compiled a GSR at or above the national average of 77 percent or higher (track and field and cross country count as one sport).

Ten Penn State squads earned a Graduation Success Rate of 100 percent and 21 teams had a GSR of 80 percent or better, according to the NCAA.

The NCAA also reported in 2007 that Penn State student-athletes compiled a federal graduation rate of 83 percent for the entering class of 2000-01, significantly above the 63 percent national average. The 83 percent federal rate was tied for the Nittany Lions' best performance in the 17-year history of the NCAA report.

The four-year graduation rate average for University Park student-athletes was 82 percent, well above the national average of 62 percent for student-athletes. The 2000-01 freshman class, four-year averages and GSR were second-highest in the Big Ten to Northwestern.

• The 2007 NCAA report also showed that Penn State's African-American student-athletes in the entering class of 2000-01 earned a record 90 percent graduation rate, substantially higher than the 53 percent Division I national average. Northwestern was second among Big Ten institutions at 69 percent.

Of the Penn State student-athletes in the NCAA studies from 1991-92 through 2000-01 who exhausted their eligibility, 95 percent left with their diplomas.

• During the 2007 fall semester, 174 Penn State student-athletes earned a 3.50 grade-point average or higher to gain Dean's List recognition (minimum of 12 credits). A total of 396 student-athletes compiled a GPA of 3.0 or above. The 396 total represented 55 percent of active student-athletes.

• During the 2007-08 academic year, a school-record 261 Penn State student-athletes received Academic All-Big Ten honors. Over the past 14 years, Penn State leads all Big Ten institutions with 3,059 academic all-conference honorees.

• Six student-athletes earned ESPN The Magazine CoSIDA Academic All-America accolades in 2007-08, giving Penn State 135 such selections all-time, with 91 in the last 14-plus years under Curley's leadership.

Curley was recognized for his efforts in helping Penn State maintain its stature as one of the nation's premier athletic programs in 2003 with his selection as the Northeast Athletic Director-of-the-Year by NACDA. He was one of just four regional Division I-A honorees.

To continue to give the coaching staff and student-athletes the resources to succeed academically and athletically, Curley is guiding the most ambitious fund-raising and athletics facilities campaigns in the department's history. More than $128 million was raised for Intercollegiate Athletics by June 2008 to surpass the Success With Honor Campaign goal of $100 million.

The Athletics physical plant has improved substantially under Curley's watch. A new softball facility, golf clubhouse, soccer practice fields and men's and women's basketball offices are among projects near completion or set for construction.

The most recently completed capital project was a new baseball stadium — Medlar Field at Lubrano Park. The Penn State baseball team shares the state-of-the-art facility with a short-season minor league team — the State College Spikes — owned by the Altoona Curve franchise. Curley played a significant role in developing the unique partnership with the Curve organization. The 5,406-seat stadium opened to rave reviews in June 2006.

Also in 2006, a new student fitness center and expanded and renovated wrestling practice room, locker room and strength training facilities opened in Rec Hall.

The 12,500-seat expansion and renovation of Beaver Stadium was completed in 2001, raising the capacity to 107,282. The project included private suite and club level seating previously unavailable and the construction of the magnificent Penn State All-Sports Museum to house Penn State's impressive collection of sports memorabilia.

Other facility projects completed in recent years include the construction of the Lasch Football Building, Ashenfelter Indoor Multi-Sport Facility and Sarni Tennis Center and renovations to the White Building, East Area Locker Room, Jeffrey Field and a new field hockey facility.

Curley also oversees the expansive intramural/club sport programs — which included a fourth consecutive national championship in men's ice hockey in 2003 and the women's rugby national tile in 2004 — on the University Park campus, as well as general recreational activities. He's charged as well with responsibility for the athletic and recreational programs at Penn State's Commonwealth Campuses.

It is a dizzying pace for Curley, who is a regular presence at athletic events, team banquets, alumni meetings and regional and national meetings of athletic administrators.

He is a member of the NCAA Committee on Academic Performance (CAP) and on the Board of Directors of the Honda Collegiate Women Sports Awards.

Curley served as president of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) in 2005-06. He was the first Penn State Athletic Director to serve as president of NACDA, which is a professional and educational association for more than 6,100 athletic administrators at more than 1,600 institutions in the United States, Canada and Mexico. He was elected a NACDA officer in 2002.

In 2004, Curley was appointed to a special NCAA task force that reviewed Division I recruiting bylaws and to the NCAA Division I Football Issues Committee, a group which he chaired. He previously was a member of the NCAA Division I Championships/Competition Cabinet and served as chair of the NCAA Postseason Bowl Certification Sub-Committee.

It is no exaggeration to say Tim Curley is someone who knows the Penn State athletic program from the ground up. A State College product, he grew up across the street from Old Beaver Field where some of his most memorable days as a youngster were spent there and in Rec Hall. He parked cars, sold game programs and served as a baseball batboy.

The top assistant to Athletic Director Jim Tarman, Curley was named Director of Athletics on December 30, 1993, when Tarman retired after 35 years as a Penn State athletic administrator.

Curley, 54, has been a full-time member of the athletic staff since he joined the department as a graduate assistant football coach. A product of State College Area High School where he played basketball and football for Jim Williams' undefeated 1971 team, Curley walked on as a football player only to have his career cut short by injuries. After earning his Bachelor's degree in health and physical education in 1976, he served a year as a graduate assistant coach while pursuing his Master's degree in counselor education.

Curley was named the Nittany Lions' first full-time football recruiting coordinator in 1978 and was instrumental in identifying and recruiting a number of members of the 1982 national championship team. In 1981, he was named assistant to the athletic director where he was involved with the day-to-day operations of the department.

Curley was active in the development of the Academic Support Center for Student-Athletes, the Penn State Sports Medicine Center, the Varsity "S" Club and the Football Letterman's Club during his tenure as assistant to the athletic director. He also was instrumental in putting in place Penn State's first NCAA compliance program and acted as the department's compliance coordinator for five years before surrendering those responsibilities when he was named Associate Athletic Director in 1992.

He is married to the former Melinda Harr of Washington, Pa., who earned degrees from Penn State in 1977 and 1986. The Curleys have two children — a daughter, Devon, and a son, Tanner. Curley was born on April 28, 1954.

Penn State appeared on national, regional or local television 11 times during the 2007 season, and 30 of the Nittany Lions' matches were broadcast on the radio and over the internet.

INTERVIEW & CREDENTIAL POLICIES

This publication about the 2008 Penn State Women's Volleyball team has been prepared to aid members of the media covering the Nittany Lions this season. Additional information is available by contacting Jen Armson-Dyer at (814) 865-1757 or by email at jma19@psu.edu.

CREDENTIALS

Members of the media should contact the Penn State Athletic Communications Office to request season or individual game credentials for Nittany Lion volleyball home matches. The press row at Rec Hall is located on the upper track level of the building on the south side.

Individual game requests should be made no later than noon the day prior to the game and should be directed to Jen Armson-Dyer, Assistant Athletic Communications Director, at (814) 865-1757 or jma19@psu.edu. Credentials will be available for pick-up at the Rec Hall Will Call window the evening of the contest.

Members of the media are allowed to park in the Nittany Parking Deck adjacent to the Nittany Lion Inn, where they are allowed to park for free with their credential.

INTERVIEW POLICIES

Please direct all requests for interviews with coaches or players to Jen Armson-Dyer. Members of the Penn State coaching staff are usually available during weekday mornings and afternoon practices and are available after matches.

Members of the volleyball team will be available for interviews before and after scheduled practices, but will not be available for interviews on the day of a game, home or away, until the post-game press conference. After home matches, head coach Russ Rose and requested players will be available for interviews in Rec Hall, room 142. Contact Jen Armson-Dyer for individual post-match interviews and away match requests. Players will return telephone calls; home and cell phone numbers will not be released.

For opposing players and coaches, please contact Jen Armson-Dyer who will alert the visiting SID, if available, or set up interviews if possible.

Penn State adheres to the NCAA photography policies. Photographers are permitted on the volleyball court but must remain in the designated area. Photographers are also allowed in the stands as long as fan viewing is not obstructed, and anywhere along the upper track level of Rec Hall.

E-MAIL AND WEB UPDATES

While game notes and updated stats will be distributed to local media via email and the web on a regular basis, members of the media may request that they be added to the Penn State Athletic Communications Office's women's volleyball e-mail group. Subscribers will receive game notes, game stories and other information via e-mail. To subscribe, send a request to jma19@psu.edu. Please identify yourself and organization in your request as this service is only available to members of the media.

TELEPHONES AND WIRELESS INTERNET

There will be at least one phone provided on press row for media to make calling card or collect phone calls. Free unrestricted wireless is also available anywhere in the Rec Hall arena. Please alert Jen Armson-Dyer if additional arrangements need to be made.

DAILY MEDIA SERVICES

For the most up-to-date Nittany Lion volleyball news and statistics, visit the official website of the Penn State Athletic Department at www.GoPSUsports.com. Game notes and updated statistics for the upcoming match will be posted no later than the day before the contest.

GAMEDAY MEDIA SERVICES

The Penn State Athletic Communications staff will provide pre-match notes, scorecards, rosters, updated statistics and results for each team in the Rec Hall Media Room (Room 301, adjacent to press row off of the track) prior to each match. Box scores and any postmatch notes will be distributed approximately 10 minutes after the conclusion of the match at the post-match press conference.

An Associated Press-style game story will also be produced by the Penn State Athletic Communications Office. Members of the media may request these stories be sent to their organization via fax or e-mail by contacting a member of the Penn State Athletic Communications Staff.

PENN STATE ATHLETIC COMMUNICATIONS OFFICE

The Penn State Athletic Communications Office is located in 101 of the Bryce Jordan Center. The entrance is located off University Drive using the Orange Lot West parking lot.

WEST
* There are no Photo Zones on the South side of the court (benches/scorer's table).
* Four Photo Zone seats are on the North bleachers. Seats are reserved for credentialed photographers on a first-come, first-served basis. You must be seated on the bleacher seat - or directly in front of the bleacher with your back touching. If sitting on the floor, your feet must be tucked underneath you and all bags/equipment must be kept out of play at all times. This is a playable area.
* You may shoot from the mid-level or track as long as you do not block the view of spectators.
* Two Photo Zones are on the East and West sides of the gym. During all regular-season games, photographers have the entire side of the opposite court where Penn State is playing. PSU cheerleaders are required to cheer behind the PSU team and they will switch sides when the team does. Actual Photo Zones are not marked on the floor but photographers are asked to remain behind the white line marked on the floor about 10 feet from the endline. Please keep this area clear of bags/equipment as it is a playable area. Servers have the entire baseline for use.
* Protocol may change slightly for NCAA Championship matches.
* Thank you in advance for your cooperation.
